WILLIAM O. DeWITT JR.
CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

As the principal owner of the Cardinals, Bill DeWitt Jr. has served as its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer since 1996. DeWitt oversees all operational, baseball, financial and league matters for the team and is a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, the Board of Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the Ownership Committee, the Diversity Committee, and the Commissioner's Special Committee for On-Field Matters. He also serves on the board of the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

DeWitt, a native St. Louisan, is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School, received his B.A. Degree in economics from Yale University in 1963, and M.B.A. Degree from Harvard Business School in 1965. As the son of former baseball executive and team owner, William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt, he has deep roots in Baseball dating back to his childhood. Mr. DeWitt, Sr. began his career with the Cardinals in 1916 and worked in a variety of executive positions under Branch Rickey until the early 1940s when he joined the St. Louis Browns as General Manager. He was twice named Executive of the Year, was sole owner of the Cincinnati Reds from 1961-67 and majority owner of the Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's bat boy, and his uniform, number 1/8, was worn by Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch hitting appearance on August 19, 1951.

DeWitt, Jr. has been a prior owner of the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He was also a shareholder of the Cincinnati Bengals Football Team and the Cincinnati Stingers Hockey Team, and has had a long career in private equity with Reynolds DeWitt & Co. He is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis. They have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew, and Margot, and 12 grandchildren.

FREDERICK O. HANSER
DIRECTOR

Fred Hanser has been a Director of the Cardinals since 1996 and served as Vice Chairman until his retirement in 2009. A life-long Cardinals fan, Hanser is the son of Olive Diez Hanser Mullen and S. Albert Hanser, M.D., and is the great-grandson of Adolph M. Diez, who was a shareholder of the Cardinals from 1917-1947. Hanser received a B.A. degree in economics from Yale University in 1963 and earned a J.D. degree from the Washington University School of Law in 1966. He practiced law with the St. Louis law firm of Armstrong, Teasdale, L.L.P. Hanser and his wife, Kathy, have two grown children, Tim and Kara Mikulec, M.D., and four grandchildren.

WILLIAM DEWITT, III
PRESIDENT

Bill DeWitt III was named President of the St. Louis Cardinals in March 2008. In his role as team President, DeWitt oversees all aspects of the business of the team and its affiliated entities.

Prior to his appointment as team President, he was Sr. Vice President of Business Development with the Cardinals and oversaw the design and construction of the new Busch Stadium, which opened in April, 2006. Prior to that he was involved in several merchandising, marketing, and operational projects for the team. DeWitt was also involved in the planning for Roger Dean Stadium in Jupiter, Florida, where the Cardinals conduct Spring Training and host a Florida State League team, the Palm Beach Cardinals. He continues to be involved in plans for a mixed-use real estate development - Ballpark Village - which will be built adjacent to the new Busch Stadium on the sight of the old ballpark.

DeWitt, 44, graduated cum laude from the Taft School in 1986 and went on to graduate cum laude from Yale University in 1990. He then served as an assistant to William Reilly, head of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in Washington D.C. for four years. While there he researched and prepared briefing materials and speeches. He then attended Harvard Business School, earning his MBA in 1995.

DeWitt currently sits on the boards of the following institutions: The Taft School in Watertown, CT; Cardinals Care; Big Brothers Big Sisters of Eastern Missouri; the Muny; the Partnership for Downtown St. Louis; the St. Louis Sports Commission; and the RCGA. He was formerly president of the board of Emergency Children's Home (ECHO) in St. Louis.

DeWitt and his wife, Ira, live in St. Louis with their two children - daughter Natalie (13) and son, Will (10). Bill is an avid golfer and ice hockey player.

JOHN MOZELIAK
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

John "Mo" Mozeliak was named the Cardinals Senior Vice President and General Manager in October, 2007 after being promoted from Assistant General Manager – a position he had held for six seasons. He is the 12th general manager in the over 100-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals.

In 2011, during his fourth season as General Manager, Mozeliak engineered a series of late season moves credited with helping transform the Cardinals into an exciting, "never say die" team that came from 10 ½ games back in late August en route to the team's 11th World Championship.

Baseball America named the Cardinals as their 2011 Organization of the Year. This prestigious honor, awarded to the Cardinals for the first time, recognized that the team's big league success was built upon a strong foundation of a restructured organization that claimed two minor league titles in 2011 and that since 2005 has had more team-drafted players debut in the majors than any other club in MLB. In addition, Mo was the 2011 recipient of the MLB.com GIBBY (Greatness in Baseball Yearly) Executive of the Year award and he was named, along with Tony LaRussa, as the 2011 Baseball Man of the Year by the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In January 2010, Mo orchestrated the largest player contract in team franchise history with the signing of Matt Holliday to a seven-year deal with an option for 2017. Upon being named GM in 2007, Mo traded for David Freese and this March he completed a deal with catcher Yadier Molina that ensures one of the best catchers in the game remains in a Cardinals uniform through at least 2017. Mo's in-season moves in 2009 helped the Cardinals to their first N.L. Central Division title under his watch.

Mozeliak, 43, is a 17-year veteran of the Cardinals front office, having joined the organization following the 1995 season where he initially served as an assistant in scouting operations during both the 1996 and 1997 seasons. Mo was named assistant scouting director in 1998 and was promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of '99 and 2000 under Mo's direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft, as well as catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeliak was named Director of Baseball Operations and in 2003 he was promoted to Assistant General Manager. During his time as Assistant GM, Mo's duties increased as he focused more on the Major League Club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and the University of Colorado. He lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, daughter, Allyson, and son, Will.

MICHAEL GIRSCH
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Girsch is in his second season as the Cardinals' Assistant General Manager after being appointed to that position in January 2011. In his role, he assists General Manager John Mozeliak with Major League player transactions, contract negotions and player evaluations and helps oversee all aspects of Baseball Operations including amatuer and pro scouting, player development, international operations and baseball development.

Girsch joined the Cardinals in 2006, starting his career with a two year stint as the Coordinator of Amateur Scouting. In 2008, he was named Director of the newly created Baseball Development department – a group focused on supporting Baseball Operations via internet applications, analytical models and decision support tools. Mike led the Baseball Development department for three years before being promoted to Assistant GM.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Girsch, 35, earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. He and his wife, Kelly, reside in Webster Groves with their four children, twins Addison and Eleanor (7), Claire (5) and Tommy (4).

JOHN VUCH
FARM DIRECTOR

John Vuch is in his 25th season in Baseball Operations and his 34th overall with the Cardinals. Vuch was promoted to Farm Director on September 16, 2010, after spending more than three years as Director of Minor League Operations. The 2010 Cardinals Minor League system had the highest combined winning percentage of any Major League organization. With championships in Quad Cities and Johnson City, 2011 marked the first time since 1994 that multiple Cardinals minor league affiliates won league championships, and the Cardinals were recognized as the 2011 Organization of the Year by Baseball America.

In his current role as farm director, Vuch oversees all aspects of the Cardinals player development system. He is responsible for the daily operations of the Cardinals' farm system and is involved with the club's minor league player personnel decisions. Vuch has worked several years in the player development department, serving as the main contact for Cardinals' minor league players. He began working for the Cardinals as a "runner" in 1979 and worked in the Sales Department from 1985 to 1987.

He was awarded the Harry Mitauer Good Guy Award by the St. Louis chapter of the Baseball Writer's Association of America at their 51st annual dinner in 2009. A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from Oakville High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vuch and his wife, Maria, reside in south St. Louis County with their children Jack (17), Hayley (14) and Anna (11).

DAN KANTROVITZ
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Kantrovitz begins his first season as the Cardinals' Director of Scouting overseeing the amateur draft. He reports to VP/General Manager John Mozeliak.

This is Kantrovitz's second stint with the Cardinals. From 2004-2008, he served roles in amateur, international and professional scouting including Assistant Scouting Director and Director of College Scouting. He also assisted in the creation of the Cardinals' computer system, Redbirdog.

From 2009-2011, Kantrovitz led the International Scouting department for the Oakland A's, most recently as Director of International Scouting. Under his guidance, the A's signed players from the Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Mexico, Cuba, Colombia, Panama, Taiwan, Korea, Aruba and Europe. He also assisted on analytical projects in various aspects of baseball operations.

Prior to working in baseball, Kantrovitz was an all-Ivy League shortstop at Brown University who twice batted over .400. He was drafted by the Cardinals in the 25th round of the 2001 MLB draft. After a shoulder injury shortened his professional career, he worked as an investment banking analyst and for a company providing statistical analysis to major league teams.

A St. Louis native, Kantrovitz, 33, graduated from John Burroughs High School. He holds a bachelor's degree from Brown University and a master's degree in statistics from Harvard University. He and his wife, Brenna, reside in St. Louis with their daughter, Lily (1).

MIKE JORGENSEN
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Jorgensen currently serves as a Special Assistant to the General Manager, a position he has held since September 2001. Before his current role, he served as director of player development for 10 seasons (1992-01), and was the team's minor league hitting instructor/coordinator in1990 and 1991.

Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season, 'Jorgy' was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg and led the team to an 88-48 finish and the Florida State League championship. He also managed the Triple-A Louisville Redbirds from 1987-'89. Jorgensen made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, he also remained in his post as director of player development.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman/outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968. He was traded to Montreal at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland, Texas, the Mets again, Atlanta and St. Louis.

Jorgensen, 63, graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., attended St. John's University and served from 1967-1972 in the United Stated Marine Corps Reserve. He and his late wife, Brenda, have three married children; Brian, Kristen and Eric, and four grandsons: Eric, Jacob, James and Owen.

GARY LaROCQUE
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Gary LaRocque joined the St. Louis organization in 2008 as Senior Special Assistant to the General Manager. He is in his 37th year in professional baseball in player development and scouting. He served in senior management levels for the New York Mets beginning in 1998, as Scouting Director, Assistant General Manager and Vice President / Player Development and Scouting through 2005 and was appointed Vice President of Professional Scouting in 2006.

Before joining the Mets, Gary started his professional playing career as a minor league infielder in 1975 with the Milwaukee Brewers, and began a 19-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1979 as a minor league coach. He began managing in 1981 through 1983 in the Pioneer League and Gulf Coast Rookie Leagues, followed by the Class AA Texas League for four seasons and in 1988 managed in the California League. LaRocque moved into the scouting department in 1989 as area scout and from 1992-1997 was a regional scouting supervisor for the Dodgers.

LaRocque acquired his degree in secondary Education (Mathematics) in 1975 from the University of Hartford, West Hartford, Conn., and was elected to the Athletic Hall of Fame at the University of Hartford in 1993. Gary and his wife Teri have two children, Chris and Ashley.

MATT SLATER
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Slater joined the Cardinals organization in 2007 and is in his 23rd year in Major League Baseball. Named Director of Player Personnel in January 2012, Slater, in his role as senior talent evaluator, works hand in hand with the General Manager in all player acquisitions including Major League, minor league, amateur draft and international talent. Furthermore, he aids in contract negotiations and roster composition. For the past seven years, Matt also has served as a consultant to the Orix Buffaloes Baseball Club of Japan's Nippon Professional Baseball league.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Slater served in various management capacities for the Los Angeles Dodgers for nine years, including Director of Scouting Operations, Director of Baseball Operations and Director of Professional Scouting. With the Dodgers, he oversaw scouting operations while also being involved with contract negotiations, arbitration and roster management. Before his time with the Dodgers, Slater worked with the Baltimore Orioles from 1995-98 as the Administrator of Scouting. He got his start in professional baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers when he was 19 years old; beginning in 1991, he served as the Brewers' Scouting and Player Development Assistant.

A native of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Slater graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis. in 1993, with a degree in Business Administration – Organizational Management. He also holds a law degree from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, Calif. He resides in Chesterfield, Mo. with his wife, Thomasine, and their three children, Brandon (11), Madison (8) and Jacob (8).

GREG HAUCK
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Hauck enters his second season as the Head Athletic Trainer with the Cardinals organization. He joined the team in January of 2005 and served as the Assistant Athletic Trainer for six seasons. A native of Ashland, Oregon, Greg lived and worked in Phoenix, Ariz., prior to joining the Cardinals.

Before his move to St. Louis, Greg taught and practiced Sports Medicine in the Arizona school system. From 1997 through the 2000 season he was the Medical Rehab and Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator with the Oakland Athletics. He spent 10 years prior to that role as an Athletic Trainer in the A's organization.

Hauck received his Bachelor of Science degree from Southern Oregon University and his masters degree from the University of Phoenix. In addition to being a Certified Athletic Trainer, he is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach. The 46-year-old Hauck enjoys reading and spending time with his family. He and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter Courtney (12) and son, Garrett (6), and make their home in St. Louis with their dog, Sara.

CHRIS CONROY
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris Conroy was named Assistant Atheltic Trainer for the Major League club for the 2012 season and is in his 14th year working for the Cardinals organization. He has worked his entire career with the Cardinals including the past seven seasons as the head trainer for the Memphis Redbirds. Throughout his time with the organization, he has also put time in at Tennessee, New Haven, Potomac and Johnson City.

Conroy, 36, graduated from the College of Charleston in 1998, and he's a native of Raleigh, North Carolina.

He and his wife, Kristi, have a daughter, Madelyn (12/18/10). The couple currently reside in Memphis, Tenn., and will make their home in St. Louis.

ADAM OLSEN
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER, P.T.

Adam Olsen begins his third season in St. Louis with the Cardinals as Assistant Athletic Trainer. Prior to moving to St. Louis, Olsen served the organization as the Medical Rehab Coordinator in Jupiter, Florida for four seasons. In his current position he not only assists in the daily athletic training needs of the club, but serves as the rehab corrdinator for the team's Major League players.

Olsen is a native of De Pere, Wisconsin and a graduate of Auburn University where he earned his Athletic Training Certification. He worked as an athletic trainer for Disney's Wide World of Sports and Wildwood High School in the Orlando area before returning to school for his Master's in Physical Therapy from The University of Wisconsin-Madison. Following graduation, Olsen completed a post-professional Sports Physical Therapy Fellowship at Champion Sports Medicine and the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI) under the direction of Dr. James Andrews and Kevin Wilk in Birmingham, Alabama.

Olsen, 34, and his wife, Amy, reside in St. Louis with their daughter, Annabelle Frances, and their dogs Maddie and Bailey.

PETE PRINZI
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Pete Prinzi is in his 13th season at the major league level for the Redbirds and his 16th year in the Cardinals' system overall. From 1997 through 1999, he served as the club's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prinzi, 42, graduated from Florida State University where he played football for the Seminoles. After playing professionally for three seasons (1991-93) in the European Football League, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant strength coach from 1994 through 1996.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Prinzi resides in St. Louis with his wife, Ellen, and their son Luke (7/22/11).

DR. GEORGE PALETTA JR.
TEAM PHYSICIAN & MEDICAL DIRECTOR

Dr. George A. Paletta Jr. is in his 15th season working with the Cardinals. Before joining the Cardinals, Paletta worked with the New York Mets as the associate team physician from July 1996 through 1997. He currently works with both the St. Louis Blues and the St. Louis Rams and has been an assistant team physician for the Cleveland Browns and Cleveland Cavaliers.

Paletta is a 1984 graduate of The College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass. He completed medical school in 1988, receiving an M.D. from Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in Baltimore. Paletta completed a surgical internship at Northwestern University Hospital in Chicago and then a residency in orthopedic surgery at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York where he also completed a research fellowship in sports medicine. After residency, he served as a fellow in sports medicine in 1994 and 1995 at the Cleveland Clinic. He then completed an additional fellowship in pediatric and adolescent sports medicine at Children's Hospital of Michigan.

In January 1996, Paletta joined the staff of the Hospital for Special Surgery as an assistant attending surgeon on the Sports Medicine and Shoulder Service. He also served on the faculty of Cornell University Medical College as an instructor in orthopedic surgery. In 1998, he joined the faculty of Washington University's Department of Orthopedic Surgery as an assistant professor. In August of 2005 he joined the Orthopedic Center of St. Louis.

DR. LYNDON GROSS
ORTHOPEDICS

Dr. Gross will be in his sixth season with the Cardinals as an orthopedic doctor with the club. He works alongside Dr. Paletta at the Orthopedic Center of St. Louis.

A native of New York, Gross graduated from Cornell University in Ithaca, New York and graduated from medical school at the State University of New York in Brooklyn. He did his medical internship at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, Pittsburgh, Pa., and completed an orthopedic residency at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center as well.

A board certified orthopedic surgeon, Gross fellowship trained in Sports Medicine at American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, Alabama, under the instruction of Dr. James Andrews and Dr. William Clancy, Jr. Along with his role with the Cardinals, he is the team physician for the Saint Louis University Billikens covering all team sports. Gross is also the team physician for Lindbergh, Fox and Parkway High Schools as well as an assistant professor at Saint Louis University Department of Orthopedic Surgery. He formerly served as an assistant team physician for the Washington Redskins.

DR. JOHN ELLENA
TEAM INTERNIST

Dr. Ellena will be in his fifth season as team internist after joining the staff in 2008. Currently, he is the Medical Director for the BJC Medical Group which is a multi-specialty group employing 130 physicians across the BJC system.

Dr. Ellena completed his undergraduate degree at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale and continued his education at the SIU School of Medicine in Springfield, IL, graduating in 1983. After his internship and residency in Internal Medicine at The Jewish Hospital of St. Louis/Washington University, Major Ellena spent the next three years in the Air Force assigned to Scott AFB and the Military Airlift Command.

Recognized for his insight, Dr. Ellena was appointed to the Board of Directors for BJC Healthcare, the largest employer in the State of Missouri, with 13 member hospitals and 26,000 employees. He continues to serve on the Patient Care Committee of the Board and the Medical Executive Committee at Barnes Jewish West County Hospital.

Dr. Ellena was born and raised 90 miles north of St. Louis in Virden, Illinois.

2011 WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS

MANAGER, COACHES & PLAYERS

Mike Matheny was named the 49th manager in St. Louis Cardinals franchise history on November 14, 2011, succeeding Tony La Russa who announced his retirement on October 31, 2011 after 16 seasons at the helm of the Redbirds. Matheny, 41, will be entering his first season as a manager/coach at the professional level. He recently served as a Special Assistant in Player Development for the Cardinals.

Matheny, at age 41, becomes the youngest active manager in the majors and the youngest Cardinals manager since Jack Krol, who was also 41 years of age when he managed the team in 1978. Matheny joins notables such as Red Schoendienst, Joe Torre, Ken Boyer, Frank Frisch and Rogers Hornsby amongst Cardinals players who later served as the team's manager.

Matheny inherits a Cardinals team that captured the 11th World Championship title in franchise history in 2011. In 1965, Schoendienst also took over a Cardinals defending World Championship team in his first season as Cardinals manager.

A veteran of 13 seasons in the majors, Matheny was drafted out of the University of Michigan by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 8th round of the 1991 draft. Matheny made his Major League debut with the Brewers in 1994 and spent five seasons (1994-98) with Milwaukee before signing a free-agent contract with the Toronto Blue Jays in 1999. Following his release by the Blue Jays, Matheny signed a free-agent contract with the Cardinals on December 16, 1999 and he went on to spend five seasons with the Cardinals from 2000-04, earning trips to the postseason in four of those five seasons, including a National League Championship in 2004. As a Cardinal, Matheny appeared in 611 games at catcher, logging 4,938.1 innings while commiting just 14 errors.

The four-time (2000, 2003-05) Rawlings Gold Glove recipient holds the Major League catching record for consecutive errorless games (252) and for consecutive errorless chances (1,565). He posted a lifetime batting mark of .239 with 67 home runs and 443 RBI in 1,305 games played in a career that was cut short due to complications from repeated concussion. Matheny signed with San Francisco as a free-agent prior to the 2005 season and he spent two seasons with the Giants before playing his final game on May 31, 2006. In his first season with the Giants, Matheny set the team record for fielding pct. (.9988) by a catcher, came within two of the team mark (36) for doubles by a catcher and was voted by his teammates as the recipient of the "Willie Mac Award" for being the most inspirational player on the team.

In 2002, Matheny served as an inspirational leader for the Cardinals, helping the team to cope with the shocking death of pitcher Darryl Kile while still reaching the National League Championship Series. Matheny was voted by his teammates as the first recipient of the "Darryl Kile Award" in 2003 - an award that goes annually to the Cardinals player who best demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day; those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father and a humble man.

Matheny has been a tireless worker in the community, organizing and creating the "Catch-22" charity that donated tickets to Cardinals fans from 2002-04. In 2005, his group saw the opening of the "Catch 22 Miracle Field" at Chesterfield Valley Athletic Complex. The $650,000 project was designed and constructed to allow children of all abilities to experience the thrill of playing baseball, and is specially designed to accomodate athletes with physical and mental disabilities. The field incorporates a firm, rubber playing surface that is more forgiving and friendly for wheelchairs, walkers and children who may use braces, while dugouts provide room for wheelchairs to maneuver and wide concrete patios and ramps allow families to easily access both field and viewing areas. Funding for the field project was provided by "Catch 22 Foundation", which Mike created.

Matheny, born on September 22, 1970 in Reynoldsburg, Ohio, graduated from Reynoldsburg High School in 1988, where he was a team captain for both the baseball and football teams. He was a member of the Connie Mack National Championship team in 1989 and attended the University of Michigan, where he was co-captain of the Wolverines' baseball team. Mike's wife, Kristin, was also a varsity athlete at Michigan, playing field hockey. The couple resides in St. Louis county with their five children, daughter Katie (17) and four sons, Tate (18), Luke (15), Jacob (14) and Blaise (11).

Matheny (pronounced muh-THEE-nee) signed a two-year contract for 2012-13 with a club option for 2014. He joins Robin Ventura of the White Sox as first-year managers debuting in the majors this season. Dale Sveum of the Cubs is entering his first season as a full-time manager, however he served as interim manager for Milwaukee late in the 2008 season.

MICHAEL (MIKE) PETER ALDRETE (28)

BENCH COACH

Aldrete, 51, is entering his first season as the Cardinals Bench Coach and his fifth overall as a member of the Cardinals organization. Aldrete had served as the team's Assistant Hitting Coach since 2008.

Aldrete was the Hitting Coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks from 2005-06 and was First Base Coach for the Seattle Mariners in 2004. Prior to joining Bob Melvin's coaching staff, Aldrete spent three seasons in the Diamondbacks farm system, working as the Hitting Coach in Yakima for 2001 and then serving managerial stints in 2002 with Yakima and 2004 with Lancaster.

The former first baseman/outfielder enjoyed a 10-year career in the majors with San Francisco, Montreal, San Diego, Cleveland, Oakland and the New York Yankees, making his big league debut in 1986 with the Giants.

A career .263 hitter, Aldrete enjoyed his best season in 1987, batting .325 while helping the Giants to the National League Championship Series where they were defeated by the Cardinals in seven games. Mike split the 1996 season between California and New York, finishing his final season on top with the World Champion Yankees.

Aldrete graduated from Monterey (Ca.) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football. He graduated from Stanford University in 1983 and enjoyed a pair of trips to the College World Series with the Cardinal, earning third team All-America honors during his senior season. He was a member of the U.S. Collegiate All-Star Team that toured Japan in 1982. Mike, who was born on January 29, 1961 in Carmel, CA, makes his off-season home in Salinas, CA with his wife, Gina, and their three children; Michael, Blake and Nicolette.

DAVID (DAVE) EDWIN DUNCAN (18)

PITCHING COACH

Duncan and the Cardinals announced in January that Dave would be taking a leave of absence for personal reasons and that there is no time-table for his return. Duncan, 66, completed his 16th season as the Cardinals' pitching coach in 2011 after being appointed to the post on October 23, 1995. Duncan has served for 32 years as a pitching coach - the most all-time in the majors, surpassing Galen Cisco's 28 years.

The Cardinals pitching staff overcame the pre-season loss of Adam Wainwright to injury in 2011, one year after Wainwright had become the fourth Cardinals 20-game winner under Dave Duncan's watch, joining Chris Carpenter, Matt Morris and Darryl Kile.

His 2005 pitching staff posted the Cardinals first ERA (3.45) title since 1969 and the starting staff recorded 81 wins, the most by a Cardinals team since the beginning of Divisional play. His 2004 pitching staff finished percentage points behind Atlanta for the National League's ERA title (3.75), while the team's 3.01 bullpen ERA ranked among the league's best as did the team's 89 quality starts. In each of his first two seasons, the pitching staff set club records for strikeouts and ranked in the top six in the league in ERA.

Before joining the Cardinals, Duncan had been Oakland's pitching coach since July 1986, when he joined the A's along with manager Tony La Russa. Under Duncan's guidance, the Oakland staff ranked as one of the best in baseball, leading the American League in ERA from 1988 through 1990. In 1990, the A's had the lowest earned-run average in the majors, becoming just the second A.L. staff to do so since the inception of the DH rule in 1973.

Duncan began his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired as Seattle's pitching coach, and the Mariners responded by leading the A.L. in strikeouts and finishing second in saves and shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join La Russa and the Chicago White Sox.

A former catcher, Duncan signed with the Kansas City A's in 1963 and made his major league debut in 1964. When the A's moved to Oakland, Duncan moved with them and appeared in both the 1971 and 1972 A.L. Championship Series and the 1972 World Series. Duncan concluded his playing career with two-year stints in both Cleveland (1973-74) and Baltimore (1975-76).

During his playing and coaching career, Duncan has been associated with eight Cy Young Award winners: he coached Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley, LaMarr Hoyt and Chris Carpenter; and caught Vide Blue and Jim Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer and Mike Cuellar in Baltimore.

Duncan and his wife, Jeanine, have two sons, David (Shelley) and Chris. Shelley was drafted by the New York Yankees in the June 2001 draft and made his Major League debut on July 20, 2007. Chris was a supplemental first-round draft pick by the Cardinals in the June 1999 draft and spent three-plus seasons as part of the Cardinals Major League team before a mid-season trade to Boston in 2009. Dave was honored at the January 2009 St. Louis Baseball Writers Dinner with a Meritorious Service Award. He and Jeanine make their off-season home near Table Rock Lake, Mo.

DEREK JANSEN LILLIQUIST (36)

PITCHING COACH

Lilliquist is in his 11th year with the Cardinals organization and his second as a member of the Major League coaching staff. He served as the team's bullpen coach in 2011, but will take over the pitching coach duties this year as Dave Duncan takes a leave of absence.

"Lilly" served as the Jupiter Complex pitching coordinator from 2008-2010, working with rehabilitating pitchers. From 2004-07 he served as the pitching coach for Palm Beach (A). Palm Beach made the playoffs twice in that span and won the 2005 Florida State League Championship as the pitching staff registered the second best ERA (3.94) in the FSL.

Lilliquist initiated his career with the Cardinals at rookie level Johnson City in 2002 then moved on to Peoria in 2003. Before joining the Cardinals, Lilliquist was a high school baseball coach at Vero Beach (Fla.) High School from 1998 to 2001.

The former lefthanded starter-turned-reliever spent five-plus years in the Major Leagues, recording 25 victories. In 1992 while with Cleveland, Lilliquist made 71 appearances, going 5-3 with a 1.75 ERA. The next season with Cleveland, he earned 10 saves while recording a 2.25 ERA. He was drafted in 1987 by the Atlanta Braves in the first round (sixth pick overall) of the June free agent draft and spent time in the Major Leagues with Atlanta, San Diego, Cleveland, Boston and Cincinnati, ending his professional career in 1997.

Lilliquist, 46, graduated from Sarasota (Fla.) High School and had an outstanding collegiate career at the University of Georgia where he compiled a 31-12 record with a 3.30 ERA in three years. In 1987 he led Georgia to the SEC title and a first-ever trip to the NCAA College World Series after being named College Pitcher of the Year by Baseball America.

He makes his off-season home in Vero Beach with his children Derek (18) and Alexandra (16).

JAMES CHRIS MALONEY (37)

FIRST-BASE COACH

Chris Maloney is entering his first season on the Cardinals Major League coaching staff and will serve as the team's First Base Coach. Maloney spent the past five seasons (2007-11) as the Memphis Redbirds (AAA) manager, leading the team to winning records in four of his five seasons. Maloney guided the 2010 Redbirds to the Pacific Coast League Championship Series for the second straight season. The 2010 club entered the series on a nine-game PCL playoffs win streak dating back to 2009 when his Memphis club won the PCL Championship by sweeping Albuquerque and Sacramento in six straight games.

Maloney served two seasons as Springfield (AA) manager from 2005-06 prior to his promotion to Memphis. "Hammer" returned to the Cardinals organization in 2005 after having spent three years in the Astros organization as manager of the Triple-A New Orleans Zephyrs. Maloney posted a 212-220 record with the Zephyrs, including a first place finish in 2002.

Maloney's previous tenure with the Cardinals included Manager of the Year honors in three different leagues: the New York-Penn League while leading Hamilton to a 56-20 (.737) record in 1992, the highest winning percentage by a Cardinals minor league team; the South Atlantic League with Savannah in 1993, and the Texas League with Arkansas in 1998. His 1993 Savannah squad posted a 94-48 record and captured the league title as Maloney was named Baseball Weekly's Minor League Manager of the Year. In his 17 seasons as a manager in the Cardinals system, Maloney has compiled a 1016-870 (.539) record.

His work with young Cardinals players was formally recognized when he was presented with the 2006 and 2009 George Kissell Awards, presented annually for excellence in player development. The 2009 award made Maloney the first two-time winner.

Maloney, 50, is a native of Jackson, Miss. He graduated from Mississippi State University in 1983 and was later signed as a non-drafted free agent by the New York Mets. The former outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played one minor league season at Springfield, Ill. He and wife Laurie have a daughter, Ann Bradley, and son, Jake.

MARK DAVID McGWIRE (25)

HITTING COACH

Mark McGwire was named as the Cardinals hitting coach on October 26, 2009, his first return to uniform since announcing his retirement as a player following the 2001 season. He is entering his 3rd season as hitting coach, with the 2011 Cardinals leading the N.L. in batting (.273) and runs scored (762). McGwire, along with the Chicago Cubs Sammy Sosa, inspired a renaissance of the National Pastime in 1998 as he blasted his way to a then major league record 70 home runs, eclipsing Roger Maris' 1961 record of 61 homers. He currently ranks 10th on Major League Baseball's all-time home run list (583) and holds the majors single-season rookie record for home runs with 49, set in 1987 with the Oakland A's.

A 12-time Major League All-Star selection, McGwire played parts of 12 seasons with the Oakland A's (1986-97) and four-plus seasons for the Cardinals (1997-2001).

"Big Mac" was selected by the Oakland A's in the first round (10th player overall) of the June 1994 amateur draft out of the University of Southern California. He was voted the consensus American League Rookie of the Year in 1987 when his 49 homers led the league and tied for the Major League high. He hit a dramatic game winning homer in the ninth inning of Game 3 in 1988 World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers and was a key cog in the A's World Championship title run in 1989 when Oakland defeated the San Francisco Giants in the "Earthquake Series". He hit an Oakland record and major league-leading 52 home runs in 1996, becoming just the 14th player in Major League history to hit 50 home runs.

In 1997, Mark became only the second Major Leaguer, after Babe Ruth, to hit 50 or more homers in consecutive seasons and he became the first player to hit 20 home runs with two different teams in one season, hitting 24 homers for the Cardinals after arriving in a July 31 trade from Oakland. He matched his previous single-season high for home runs on Sept. 16 vs. LA, when he launched a 517-foot blast off the facade above the left-center field scoreboard — at the time the longest estimated homer at Busch Stadium. Earlier that same day he'd signed a contract extension with the Cardinals through the year 2000.

In addition to breaking the single-season home record in 1998, Mark led all Major Leaguers with a .752 slugging average, second in N.L. history to Rogers Hornsby's .756 average in 1925. One of that season's more memorable blasts was a 545-foot shot off Florida's Livan Hernandez on 5/16 that caromed off the St. Louis Post-Dispatch sign in dead center field. Mark connected for historic home run No. 62 at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tue,. Sept. 8 vs. CHI. With nobody on, two outs and the Cards trailing, 2-0, in the fourth inning, McGwire lined the first pitch from Cubs righthander Steve Trachsel an estimated 341 feet over the left-field wall — his shortest homer of the year. The ball cleared the wall 15 feet to the right of the foul pole and was retrieved under the stands by grounds crew worker Tim Forneris. In the Sept. 27 season finale vs. MON, Mark hit a solo homer (No. 69) off Mike Thurman in the third and blasted No. 70 off Carl Pavano in the seventh — a three-run shot to left in his final at-bat of the year.

He followed up his record-breaking season by hitting 65 home runs in 1999 to lead all Major Leaguers for the fourth straight season. He joined the exclusive 500 career home run club on Aug. 5 vs. SD, clouting a pair of homers off Andy Ashby: No. 500 was a 451-foot solo blast to center field; No. 501 was a 479-foot solo drive to left-center. He became only the second player, after Harmon Killebrew, to have a multihomer game while reaching 500 homers. He was named to baseball's All-Century Team during the 1999 World Series. At the time of Mark's contract signing in 1997, he announced that he was founding the Mark McGwire Foundation for Children to assist agencies that work with child-abuse victims...Mark and his family reside in southern California.

DYAR K. MILLER (49)

BULLPEN COACH

Dyar Miller is entering his first season as the Cardinals bullpen coach after most recently having served as the team's Minor League Pitching Coordinator since 2008. Miller worked for seven-straight seasons (2001 to 2007) as pitching coach for the Cardinals Triple-A Memphis club. Miller has worked 19 years in the Cardinals organization, including four years as a roving pitching instructor (1997 to 2000). During the 1995-96 seasons Miller was the pitching coach at Triple-A Louisville. He previously coached in the Cardinals system at Arkansas (1985) and Louisville (1986) and was the bullpen coach for the Chicago White Sox in 1987 and pitching and bullpen coach for the Sox in 1988. Miller also coached in the Detroit system (1989-90) and was with the Cleveland organization as a pitching coach from 1991 to 1994.

The 65-year-old former pitcher was originally signed by Philadelphia. He spent seven years in the majors, pitching for Baltimore (1975-77), California (1977-79), Toronto (1979) and the New York Mets (1980-81), compiling a 23-17 record with 22 saves and a 3.23 ERA.

Miller was born in Batesville, Ind., and graduated from New Point High School, where he participated in baseball, basketball and track. He earned a B.S. degree in 1968 from Utah State, where he played baseball and basketball. He served in the United States Air Force Reserve from 1968-74. Miller and his wife, Bertha, have six children: Scott, Matthew, Jeff, Christopher, Sara Mae and Lisa and nine grandchildren. They reside in Indianapolis.

Dyar was named the recipient of the George Kissell Award for excellence in player development in 2001 and he was inducted into the Indiana Baseball Hall of Fame in January of 2007.

JOSE MANUEL OQUENDO (11)

THIRD-BASE COACH

Oquendo is in his 13th season as the Cardinals third-base coach, after joining the club's major league staff in 1999 as bench coach. Upon ending his playing career, he was a field instructor in the Cardinals farm system in 1997 before managing the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate to a 34-41 finish in 1998.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season major league records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

A native of Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, Oquendo, 48, now makes his home in St. Louis County with his wife, Zenaida, their four children, and granddaughter, Gabriela. He was voted top utility man on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. Oquendo managed the Puerto Rican team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 and again in 2009 and was the manager of the victorious World Team during the MLB Futures Game that was played during the 2009 All-Star Week in St. Louis.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 72, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 24th on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in both 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform No. 20 is one of 11 that have been retired by the Cardinals. Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984. He was voted leftfielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team at the end of the 2005 season. The National League has named the award given to the N.L.'s stolen base champion the "Lou Brock Award" in honor of Lou's success on the basepaths.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time as a Cardinal from 1959 to 1975, is in his 17th season as Cardinals special instructor. Gibson, 76, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts, tying an N.L. record for one month.

In World Series competition, few players compared to Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters nine times, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform No. 45 is one of 11 retired by the Cardinals. Gibson was voted top starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb. His son, Chris, was signed by the Cardinals in January of 2008 and spent playing time in both the Cardinals and Los Angeles Dodgers minor league system.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Red Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 70 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager. His 12 seasons at the helm of the Redbirds stood as the longest tenure in club history until Tony La Russa managed his 13th season in 2008. Schoendienst managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League All-Stars to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate honor with his induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Ill., and was married to the late Mary Schoendienst for 53 years (Sept. 20, 1947). They had four children, all of whom are married: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

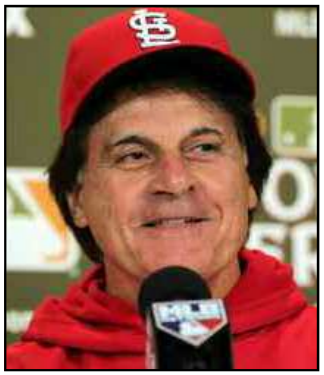
TONY LA RUSSA — 2012 NATIONAL LEAGUE ALL-STAR MANAGER



Tony La Russa, the winningest manager in St. Louis Cardinals franchise history, announced his retirement on Oct. 31, 2011 after a record 16 seasons as the team's manager. La Russa, 67, guided the Cardinals to their 11th World Championship in 2011 and left the game ranked 3rd all-time in managerial wins (2,728) behind only John McGraw (2,763) and Connie Mack (3,731).

Commissioner Bud Selig announced on January 24th that La Russa will manage the 2012 National League All-Star team. It will mark the third time that an inactive manager will lead an All-Star squad. Hall of Fame manager John McGraw retired following the 1932 season and managed the N.L. squad in the first Midsummer Classic in 1933. Danny Murtaugh managed the N.L. All-Star squad in 1972 after leaving the dugout following the 1971 season with the Pirates; however, he returned to managing in 1973. Two managers led an All-Star team after moving on to new clubs immediately following a World Series. Dick Williams was the 1974 A.L. All-Star manager after leaving the A's for the California Angels following the 1973 World Series. Dusty Baker, who managed the San Francisco Giants to the 2002 Fall Classic, was the 2003 N.L. All-Star manager after joining the Chicago Cubs.

La Russa, who was named the Cardinals 48th manager on October 23, 1995, guided the Cardinals to a franchise record 1,408 wins. He led the Cardinals to eight division titles (1996, 2000-02, 2004-06 & 2009), three National League pennants (2004, 2006 & 2011) and two World Championships (2006 & 2011).

La Russa is 2nd all-time in games managed with 5,097, including stints with the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). He ranks 1st on the Cardinals all-time games managed list with 2,491 and his 16 years of continuous service were tops among active managers/head coaches in the four major professional sports leagues.

La Russa's Cardinals teams finished above .500 in 13 of his 16 seasons. They recorded 105 wins in 2004 and 100 wins in 2005, making La Russa just the second Cardinals manager to oversee two 100-win seasons. Last year, La Russa became only the second manager to win two World Championships with the Cardinals, joining Billy Southworth (1942 & 1944). La Russa and Sparky Anderson are the only managers to have led both a National and American League team to World Series titles.

During La Russa's 16 years at the Cardinals helm, the team surpassed 3 million in season attendance 13 times, including a franchise record 3, 552,180 fans in 2007. His Cardinals teams finished no lower then 3rd place in all but three seasons.

La Russa's Cardinals teams posted a National League best 913 wins during the decade of the 2000s, winning a league-leading 33 postseason games during that same time frame. Since joining the Cardinals in 1996, La Russa's teams led the National League with 50 wins in the postseason and their .544 regular season winning pct. (1,408-1,182) ranked 2nd in the N.L. during that span.

The former infielder was born on 10/4/44 and signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics on the night he graduated from Tampa's Jefferson High School in 1962. He made his major league debut with Kansas City just one year later. La Russa didn't return to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four seasons in Oakland before concluding his big-league playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. Overall, his professional playing career spanned 16 seasons.

* Led League.

After an 8-0 shutout win over the Astros in Houston, the Cardinals waited in the clubhouse for the result of the Atlanta-Philadelphia game to find out whether they would be heading into the playoffs. A loss by the Braves in 13 innings sent the clubhouse into a frenzy as St. Louis became the National League Wild Card team.

OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

CAREER:

- St. Louis is his third professional team. Was drafted by the Houston Astros in the first round of the 1997 draft and spent 1999-2010 seasons in the majors with Houston before a trade-deadline deal in 2010 to the New York Yankees.
- Finished third in the National League MVP voting by the BBWAA in 2002 and 2006, finished fifth in 2008 and seventh following the 2011 season.
- Is a six-time All-Star (2001, '02, '04, '06, '08, '11) and has made three career starts.
- Ranks fourth all-time in career homers by a switch-hitter (358)...is one of nine switch-hitters in baseball history to reach the 300 HR plateau. Teammate Carlos Beltran is the most recent player to join the list (302).
- Leads all switch-hitters in home runs (354) and RBI (1178) since 2000. Has reached the 40-HR plateau in his career twice (2002 & 2006)...he and Mickey Mantle (four times) are the only switch-hitters to hit 40-or-more homers in at least two seasons.
- Is one of just four switch-hitters in Major League history with as many as nine seasons with 25-or more home runs: also Chipper Jones (10), Mickey Mantle (10) and Eddie Murray (12).
- Ranks second all-time among switch-hitters in slugging percentage with his .545 mark, trailing only Mickey Mantle (.557).
- Collected 309 home runs from 2000-2009, hitting at least 20 homers in each of the 10 seasons, one of just 11 players in Major League history to hit at least 20 home runs in each year of a decade (Carlos Lee and Alex Rodriguez also 2000-09).
- Since 2000 ranks sixth among all Major League players in on-base percentage (.410) and RBI (1178), eighth in doubles (403).
- Hit his 300th career home run on June 13, 2009 at ARI (RHP Jon Garland). Teamed up with Ivan Rodriguez and Carlos Lee to become the first trio of teammates to reach the 300-home run plateau in the same season.
- Ranks in the top five in every major offensive statistical category in Houston Astros history. Is the club's all-time leader in slugging (.549); second in home runs (326); third in batting average (.296), RBI (1090), walks (1040), doubles (375), runs (1008) and total bases (3053); fourth in games played (1592) and fifth in hits (1648) and at-bats (5560).
- Is Houston's franchise career leader in postseason RBI (26) & walks (20), ranks 2nd with 34 hits, 6 home runs and 8 doubles.
- Is one of only two Astros to collect as many as five 30-homer seasons (Jeff Bagwell, 9) and is the second Astro in club history with 10 consecutive 20-home run seasons (Jeff Bagwell 12).
- Has six career 100-RBI seasons, trailing only Jeff Bagwell's eight in Astros history...his three consecutive 100-RBI seasons (2006-08) are also tied for the second-most in club history, trailing only Bagwell's six consecutive from 1996-2001.
- His 136 RBI in 2006 set the franchise record for most RBI in a single season, breaking Jeff Bagwell's record 135 RBI in 1997.
- Set the Major League record for the most extra-base hits (94) in a single season by a switch-hitter and was the first switch-hitter to record at least 50 doubles and 30 home runs in the same season.

2011 SEASON:

- Named Comeback Player of the Year by both MLB and MLBPA Player's Choice and finished 7th in MVP voting by the BBWAA after his first year with St. Louis.
- Finished the season ranked among National League leaders in home runs (31-T9th), RBI (94-T11th), walks (92-4th), SLG (.547-5th) and OBP (.412-3rd).
- Lead the N.L. with his 22 road home runs, the 10th highest single-season total by a Cardinal since 1946.

- Had 23 doubles, his 12th straight season with 20+ doubles.
- Completed his sixth career season with 30+ home runs and his eighth season with 90 or more RBI's, first since 2008.
- Was elected by fans to his sixth All-Star game and made his third career start. Played rightfield and was 1-1.
- Was voted the 2011 Darryl Kile Award recipient by his teammates.
- Played 145 games, his most since playing 159 in 2008. Started 107 games in rightfield, 16 in left and made 16 starts at first base-10 when Albert Pujols was on the disabled list.
- Tied a career high (3rd time) for putouts in the outfield by recording eight in rightfield on 9/25 vs. CHI. He last had eight putouts roaming centerfield for the Astros on 4/21/02 vs. SF.
- Finished the season with 31 home runs, 2nd-most as a switch-hitter in STL history behind Rip Collins (35).
- Was a two-time National League Player-of-the-Week in April.
- HRed in three-straight games 4/11-13 at ARI (four HRs total) and followed that up with two home runs on 4/15 at LA, his 5th & 6th HR of the week - one of those his 6th career grand slam.
- HRed from both sides of plate twice (4/28 at HOU & 6/30 at BAL). Had four multi-HR games in 2011 & has 29 career.
- Went 4-5 with two home runs (both sides of plate), driving in five runs 4/28 at HOU. HRed in all three games 6/7-9 at HOU.
- Was 7-40 (.425) with 5 HR's & 15 RBI against HOU in 2011, with each of the hits, HR's & RBI coming at Minute Maid Park.
- Hit a walk-off single in the 9th on 5/17 vs. PHI, his 3rd career walk-off hit.
- Missed 3 games with sprained right wrist 5/19-21 suffered when making a diving catch in rightfield.
- His 300th lefthanded career home run (29th all-time) came on 6/23 vs. PHI.
- Went from 6/30-7/19 with every RBI coming via HR.
- Scored three runs 8/28 vs. PIT without the aid of a hit (3-BBs).
- Reached safely in seven-straight plate appearances from 9/9-10 and his longest hitting streak of the year came during the final month, a 12-game stretch from 9/12-24 (17-42, .405, 3B, HR, 5 RBI).
- Signed a one-year contract extension for the 2012 season on 9/22.

PITCHER

CAREER:

- Has 144 career wins, ranking 14th among active pitchers in baseball. His .610 winning pct. (144-92) is 8th-best among all active pitchers.
- St. Louis is 125-70 (.641 win pct.) in his starts over the past eight seasons. Has won 15 or more games for the Cardinals in five of the six seasons in which he's made 20 or more starts.
- Is 95-42 with a 3.06 ERA (1331.2 IP / 453 ER) in 194 career starts as a Cardinal. His .693 winning pct. (95-42) is 2nd all time for St. Louis pitchers with a min. of 100 games started (John Tudor, .705).
- His .693 win pct. ranks first among all starters over the past eight seasons.
- Ranks 4th in Cardinals franchise history with 1,073 strikeouts, only six behind Bob Forsch for 3rd and 22 behind Dizzy Dean for 2nd.
- Received the Player's Choice N.L. Comeback Player of the Year award in 2009 as voted on by his peers. Also received the St. Louis BBWAA Comeback Award.
- In 2005, was voted first Cardinals Cy Young Award winner since Bob Gibson in 1970. Shared 2005 co-St. Louis Man of the Year honors with Albert Pujols as voted by the St. Louis chapter of BBWAA and was selected as the 2005 Players Choice Award for National League Outstanding Pitcher just one year after being voted by the players as the N.L. Comeback Player of the Year in 2004. Won his 2nd-straight Players Choice N.L. Outstanding Pitcher Award in 2006.
- Had the honor of being named the starting pitcher for the 2005 N.L. All-Star team. His start was the first by a Cardinals pitcher in 32 years (Rick Wise, 1973). Was also named to N.L. All-Star team in 2006 & 2010, but did not pitch.
- Spent the first nine years of his pro career with the Toronto Blue Jays. Was signed by the Cardinals as a free agent in December 2002. On April 15, 2005, signed a two-year contract extension with a club option for 2008 with St. Louis...contract was renegotiated following the 2006 season and again during the 2011 season, keeping him a Cardinal through 2013.

2011 SEASON:

- Led the National League in innings pitched (237.1) for the first time in his career & tied for the league lead in games started (34).
- Among National League pitchers, T11th in strikeouts (191), 4th in complete games (4), T2nd in shutouts (2), 17th in ERA (3.45), 6th in SB pct. (45.5%),13th with 2.09 BB / 9.0 IP, 10th in SO/BB ratio (3.47) and T10th in double plays induced (20).
- Made 34 or more starts for the second consecutive season, marking the first time in his career he has accomplished the feat. Ranked 4th in the NL with 106.3 pitches per game.
- 30 of his 34 starts this season were 6.0 IP or more, including 21 which lasted 7.0 innings or longer. Had 21 quality starts.
- Needed two hits or less in his final start to avoid leading the league in hits allowed and threw a two-hit shutout (9/28 at HOU) to finish with 243 hits, 2nd in the N.L.

- His 191 strikeouts mark his second highest total in his career (213 in 2005), surpassing 180 K's for a 3rd time in his career.
- Threw three of his highest pitch totals in his career during 2011 season, topping out at 132 (6/29 at BAL). His career high is 134 at Boston in 1999 while with Toronto.
- Went 3-0 with a 2.15 ERA in six September starts with a Major League best 46.0 IP.
- Hurled over 200 innings for the fifth season in his career, averaging just under 7.0 innings per start. The 237.1 innings were his 2nd highest single-season total (241.2 in 2005). Has won at least 10 games in every season he has pitched 100+ innings.
- From 6/23 to end of season, was 10-2, 2.73 ERA (138.2 IP/42 ER/6 HR) in 19 starts. The 10 wins were T4th best in the majors during that span and the 2.73 ERA was 2nd best in the majors among starters.
- Was 3-0 with a 2.68 ERA in five July starts (37.0 IP) part of winning a team-high 5-straight decisions from 6/23-7/22.
- Made his 5th Opening Day start for St. Louis (2005-07, 2010-11), and his 6th Opening Day start overall (2002 for Toronto). Tied Dizzy Dean for the 2nd most Cardinals Opening Day starts at five, (Bob Gibson 10).
- Did not record a win in his first seven starts, the longest stretch of his career (previous high was six in his rookie season with TOR in 1997).
- Passed 2,000 career innings after the 5th inning 4/29 at ATL. It was his first start in 2011 in which the Cards won.
- Threw a season-high 9.0 IP vs. CHI (6/5) in a 3-2, 10 inn. win, marking his 2nd start of 9.0 IP without receiving a CG or a decision in his career, both coming against the Cubs (7/22/05).
- Threw complete game win at BAL on 6/29 allowing one run on seven hits, firing 132 pitches, 2nd highest in his career and most since 1998. It was his second consecutive outing of 7.0 IP or more and one run.
- In his 3 starts between 6/23-7/4, won all three with a 0.75 ERA allowing just 2 ER in 24.0 IP with one complete game. Including his 6/17 start vs. KC, he threw 124, 124, 132 & 119 pitches over a 4-start span.
- He's the only STL pitcher to have thrown 124 or more pitches in three consecutive starts dating back to 1950...since 2000, only Justin Verlander ('09), Mark Prior ('03) & Scott Elarton ('00) have done so.
- Posted his 90th career win as a Cardinal with a 6-4 victory at PIT (7/22), allowing 4 runs on 10 hits in 8.0 IP. Had 2 hits & RBI at the plate.
- Struck out Yuniesky Betancourt 8/1 at MIL making him the 4th pitcher in Cardinals history with 1,000 strikeouts.
- Threw complete game four-hit shutout vs. MIL (9/7), his second career CG/ShO to take place on that date (2009 & 2011, both vs. MIL), his 3rd CG of the season, 9th ShO as a Cardinal.
- Fired 8.0 scoreless innings scattering eight hits at PHI (9/18), his 5th consecutive start resulting in a win vs. the Phillies.
- Struck out a season-high 11 batters at HOU (9/28), a two-hit complete game shutout (10th as a Cardinal) to give the Cardinals the National League Wild Card. Also knocked in a run for his second consecutive game. The five runs in the first inning allowed Carpenter to move to 51-0 in his career when spotted a 5-run lead.
- Signed 2-year contract extension through 2013 on 9/13/11.

CAREER:

- Has played 14 Major League seasons and 16 as a professional. The Cardinals become his seventh organization, joining the Dodgers, Indians, Red Sox, Mets, Rangers and Nationals.
- Won a World Series championship with the 2007 Red Sox and has been a part of four postseason teams (2004 Dodgers, 2005, 07-08 Red Sox).
- Was a member of the 2009 World Baseball Classic Puerto Rican team managed by the Cardinals' Jose Oquendo.

2011 SEASON:

- Was invited to Spring Training by Washington as a minor league free agent and made the Opening Day roster.
- Appeared in 91 games for the Nationals, starting 61. Made 31 starts at third base, 16 at shortstop, nine at first base and five at second base. His 91 games were most since appearing in 96 games with Boston in 2006.
- Made 36 plate appearances as pinch hitter (6-32, .188 BA), second most on Nationals behind Matt Stairs (46)...tied Stairs for the team lead with six pinch hits.
- Saw increased action during Ryan Zimmerman's DL stint (4/10-6/14), playing third in 28 contests (16 starts) during that period.
- Had a pinch-hit two-run single in the 9th inning off Craig Kimbrel to tie game, then triggered four-run 11th with hit-and-run single in wild 7-3 win at ATL on May 11.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2010 - Batted .210 in 66 games for the Mets and Rangers...was released by the Mets on Aug. 7...signed with Texas on Aug. 17 and played in four games, starting two at OAK (8/29-30).

2009 - Returned to the National League and swiped a career-high eight bags for the Mets...had pair of surgeries to repair torn ligaments in both thumbs (right thumb, 8/20; left thumb, 9/21)...both procedures were performed by Dr. Andrew Weiland in NYC.

2008 - Batted .270 and matched career-high with .371 on-base percentage in final campaign with Boston...walked 16 times in 179 plate appearances...batted .315 at Fenway Park. 2008 POSTSEASON - Started at shortstop and went 1-for-3 with a walk and a run in Boston's 7-4 Game 2 win over L.A. Angels. Started Games 3 & 7 of the ALCS vs. Tampa Bay.

2007 - Earned World Series ring as Red Sox claimed 2007 World Championship...legged out 18 extra-base hits (10 doubles, 5 triples, 3 home runs) in just 83 games/207 at-bats/232 plate appearances. 2007 POSTSEASON - Saw action in four games, twice as a defensive replacement at SS and twice at 2B.

2006 - First of three full seasons with the Red Sox...tallied 10 extra-base hits in 96 games for the 86-win Red Sox.

2005 - Combined to hit .232 with 3 HR and 34 RBI in 96 games for CLE and BOS...traded to BOS on July 7 in exchange for INF Ramon Vazquez. 2005 POSTSEASON - Appeared as a defensive substitution at shortstop in Game 1 of the ALDS vs. Chicago White Sox.

2004 - In ninth and final season with the Dodgers, set career highs with 47 runs, 10 homers, 47 RBI and 47 walks...was hit by pitch 18 times, setting a Dodgers single-season record...on May 12 at Dodger Stadium, turned in arguably the best at-bat in MLB history in the 7th inning, fouled off 14 Matt Clement offerings, and on the 18th pitch of the at-bat, blasted a 2-run homer to cap the scoring in LAD's 4-0 victory over the Cubs...the at-bat lasted 13 minutes, 56 seconds. 2004 POSTSEASON - Appeared in all four games of the NLDS vs. St. Louis...had an RBI triple in Game 1, his only career postseason extra base hit.

2011 SEASON:

- Outfielder finished the year as one of the N.L.'s top all-around offensive players. Finished the season ranked 17th in NL with .296 BA, was 6th in OBP (.388), 13th in SLG (.528) and T9th with 36 doubles.
- Elected to his 5th career All-Star Game and started in left field, was 0-1 in lone at bat.
- Participated in the Home Run Derby and hit five home runs in the first round, but lost a swing-off against David Ortiz and Prince Fielder. Teammate Yadier Molina was his pitcher.
- Played in 124 games, his lowest total since 2005 when he played in 125 for Colorado after missing 39 days with an injury.
- Batted .296, his first season batting under .300 since his rookie season, the only other season he played under 125 games.
- Went 3-for-4 with a home run and two RBI on Opening Day vs. SD (3/31), tying his best season opener for hits and it was his first Opening Day homer.
- Missed seven games after April 1 appendectomy but did not go on DL. Started in LF on 4/10 and went 1-3 with two walks.

- Season of strange injuries continued when he left the game in the top of the 8th inning on 8/22 vs. LAD when a moth flew in his right ear while playing left field.
- Career home run #200 came on 9/1 at MIL, also his 20th of the season and 6th straight season with 20+ homers.
- Recorded 21 multi-RBI games, including a season-high four-RBI on 7/5 vs. CIN.
- Led the National League with a .408 average (31-76) during March/April.
- Was 3rd on the team with 40 multi-hit games, seven of the 3-hit variety. Had three hits 4/14 & 4/17 at LA as part of 8-game hitting spree (4/14-22) in which he hit .517 (15-29) with five doubles, a home run and seven RBI.
- Reached base in seven-straight PAs 4/26-27 at HOU.

PITCHER

2011 SEASON:

- Received an invite to Major League Spring Training and started the season at Memphis (AAA).
- Season was cut short after five games due to a right knee injury that would require surgery.
- Posted four scoreless appearances, allowing one run vs. New Orleans (4/14), a 10th inning home run in his second inning of work to former Memphis Redbird infielder, Ruben Gotay, resulting in his only loss.
- Struck out only one batter in 6.1 innings, well removed from his career average of over a strikeout per inning (144 K, 140.0 IP).
- Induced three double plays in his five appearances, which still ranked T4th among Memphis relief pitchers.
- The three double plays induced was a strong number based on his previous high of six in 2010 (Springfield-AA) in 51 appearances and five in 2009 (Memphis-AAA) in 54 appearances.
- Three of his five appearances were of four outs or more with two appearances of 2.0 innings, tying his career high for innings pitched in an appearance. All three previous 2.0 IP appearances were during 2010 season.

PITCHER

2011 SEASON:

- Began the season at Memphis (AAA) where he was 1-0, 0.00 ERA in two appearances (3.0 IP).
- Was recalled from Memphis on 4/13 and made his Major League debut with 2.0 scoreless IP at ARI, fanning five. The five K's were the most by a Cardinals' rookie reliever in ML debut since Manny Aybar (6 K's) in 1998.
- Recorded a scoreless outing in 22 of 26 total appearances. Cardinals record was 22-4 in games he appeared.
- Pitched in 25 games before being placed on the 15-day disabled list on 6/16 with a right shoulder strain.
- Made three rehab starts in Springfield (AA) from 7/7-12 before being shut down (0-1, 4.15 ERA, 3 app, 4.1 IP). Was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on 7/31.
- Activated from the 60-day DL on 9/13 and made his first ML appearance since 6/12 on 9/27 at HOU, striking out two in 1.1 IP.
- Finished the season with 12.0 scoreless innings in his final 10 appearances.
- Struck out 35 batters in 30.0 innings (10.5 K/9 IP).
- Did not allow an extra base hit to a left-handed batter (38 AB).
- Compiled a 1.80 ERA in 30.0 IP, which was T2nd lowest of any rookie pitcher in MLB with 30.0 or more innings.
- Made 23 of 26 app. of 1.0 IP or more, including five games of 2.0 IP. His seven app. of four outs or more were all scoreless.
- After fanning five in his MLB debut, struck out the side on 4/16 at LA in a scoreless 9th. Seventeen of his first 30 outs came via the strikeout.
- Struck out nearly 3 of every 10 batters faced, ranking 10th in National League.
- His first ML save came on 4/27 at HOU (1.0 IP); his first win on 4/29 at ATL (2.0 IP); suffered his first ML loss 5/4 vs. FLA when he allowed 2-run HR in 9th and allowed a 9th inning run on 5/13 at CIN for his first career blown save.
- Did not allow a hit in his last four appearances (5.0 IP) before being placed on the DL.
- Ranked the eighth-best prospect in the Cardinals minor league system by Baseball America.

SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

The scouting department has employees devoted to searching for baseball talent in four unique areas, including professional, college, high school and international. Professional Scouts analyze major and minor league players from other organizations and compile reports for potential trades and signings. Area Scouts live and work within an assigned geographic area of the United States and scout the amatuer ranks for talent. Each area scout is assigned a collegiate conference within their region to analyse and report. Crosscheckers verify top talent from coast to coast.

RON "POP" WARNER — MANAGER

Warner begins his first season as the field manager in Memphis. He was promoted to his current post on November 16, 2011 after spending five seasons as the only manager of the Springfield Cardinals since their origin in 2007.

Originally drafted by the Cardinals in the 17th round of the 1991 draft as a shortstop out of the University of Wyoming, Warner has spent every year since 2000 in the Cardinals organization and enters his eighth as a field manager, 11th as a coach.

Warner was promoted to the Springfield post after managing the Palm Beach Cardinals for two seasons. He led his teams to the postseason in five of his seven seasons as a manager, narrowly missing in 2008 despite having the North Division's best overall record (76-64). In his first season at Springfield in 2007, he guided the club to the Texas League championship series. His 2011 team produced four Texas League all-stars, the Texas League Player of the Year and the organization's Minor League Player and Pitcher of the Year.

Warner was voted the 2005 George Kissell award winner by the Cardinals' organization after guiding his Palm Beach squad to their first Florida State League playoff appearance and Champioinship in his first season coaching in the FSL.

Overall, he owns a 502-469 (.517) record as a bench boss. In 2004, he served as the hitting coach at Peoria (A) and guided the Midwest League's top hitting club (.277 team batting average). The previous two years (2002-2003), Warner was a coach at Class-A New Jersey. He made his coaching debut in 2001 at Double-A New Haven.

In 2000, Warner served as the batting practice pitcher for the Major League club.

Warner, 42, spent nine years playing in the Cardinalss farm system. He resides in St. Charles, Mo., with his wife, Laura, and sons, Colin Michael (1/9/04) and Benjamin Anthony (1/25/10).

MARK BUDASKA — HITTING COACH

Mark begins his fifth season as Memphis hitting coach after serving in the same capacity from 2004-07 at Triple-A Pawtucket in the Boston Red Sox system. He had been in the Red Sox organization since 2002, when he was hitting coach at Double-A Portland of the Eastern League

In 2001, he coached for the Angels' Double-A Little Rock affiliate in the Texas League. The Travelers won the Texas League Championship that year and ranked fourth in the league with a .266 team average.

Budaska was a hitting coach and first base coach for a major league team in Taiwan from 1998-2000.

The former switch-hitting outfielder played 10 years in the Oakland organization, including stints at the big league level in 1978 and 1981.

BLAISE ILSLEY — PITCHING COACH

Ilsley enters his fifth season as the pitching coach at Memphis. He was promoted to the Triple-A club on January 17, 2008 after working six seasons as the pitching coach at the Cardinals Double-A affiliate. Ilsley's staff recorded the lowest ERA in the Pacific Coast League his first two seasons with the club. In 2008, the Redbirds had a 4.34 and lowered it to 4.05 in 2009 as Memphis finished 77-67 en route to the PCL playoffs and eventually the league championship.

The 2011 staff combined to lead the PCL with a league-best 4.10 ERA and tied for the league lead with a walks+hits/innings pitched of 1.39 on the season.

Ilsley was honored by the Cardinals following the 2004 season with the George Kissell Award, presented annually by the Cardinals for excellence in player development. He came to the Cardinals from the Orioles' organization after serving as the pitching coach for Bluefield in the Appalachian League during the 2001 campaign.

Ilsley began his coaching career in 1999 with Winnipeg of the Independent Northern League and moved on to coach at Sioux Falls in 2000. He spent 14 seasons playing in the minor leagues with Astros, Cardinals, Cubs, Phillies, Indians and Expos, concluding his playing career in 1998.

He appeared in 10 games in the Major Leagues with the Cubs in 1994, making his Major League debut on April 4 of that year. A fourth-round pick of the Houston Astros in 1985, Ilsley was named to the Topps Rookie League All-Star team after leading the New York-Penn League with 116 strikeouts in 90 innings for Class-A Auburn. He combined to win 20 games at two minor league stops in 1986. The 1982 graduate of Alpena High School (Mich.) attended Indiana State University.

Ilsely, 48, resides in Sarasota, Fla., with his wife, Jo Anne.

MIKE SHILDT — MANAGER

Mike Shildt enters his first season as the Springfield manager and will also act as minor league Spring Training coordinator for the fourth consecutive season.

Last season, Shildt led short-season Johnson City to their second consecutive Appalachian League championship while setting a team record with 45 wins, just a year after tying the previous mark of 42.

While at Johnson City, Shildt compiled a 124-77 (.617) record over three seasons, averaging 41 wins per season and guided the team to their first championship since 1976.

In his first year at the helm of Johnson City, he led the squad to their best record in 13 years (37-30), just a year removed from serving as the hitting coach for the squad in 2008.

Shildt began every season from 2004-07 serving as an area scout and player development instructor before moving on to coach for a Cardinals short-season team, first as hitting coach at New Jersey in 2004-05, then bench coach in State College in 2006 and position coach for Batavia in 2007.

Prior to joining the Cardinals organization, Shildt worked from 1999-2003 as an associate scout for the MLB Scouting Bureau.

Shildt has five years of collegiate coaching under his belt working as the hititng coach and recruiting coordinator at both UNC-Charlotte and UNC-Asheville. He also owned & operated On Deck, Baseball Academy in Pineville, N.C., training many major and minor league players for four years.

Shildt, 43, is a 1991 graduate of UNC-Asheville with a degree in business and currently resides in Matthews, N.C. He was a three-year letterwinner on the Bulldogs baseball team and grew up working for the in the Orioles Double-A team in Charlotte with Cal Ripken, Jr., and Eddie Murray, performing clubhouse detail and working the scoreboard.

PHILLIP WELLMAN — HITTING COACH

Wellman enters his second season with Springfield after spending the previous seven seasons in the Atlanta Braves organization, four as manager of the Mississippi Braves (AA) from 2007-10.

In his first season as hitting coach in Springfield, Wellman tutored the 2011 Texas League Player of the Year and Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year, Matt Adams, as well as four of the top eight batting leaders in the Cardinals minor league system.

In 2008, he led Mississippi to the Southern League Championship and was named Southern League Manager of the Year in his second season as manager after serving the previous three years as hitting coach for the Double-A entrant in Greenville (2004-05) and Mississippi (2006).

Wellman boasts 24 years of coaching experience with 15 years as a manager at various levels in the minors.

His previous managerial posts include three with the Reds organization in Chattanooga (1999, 2001-03), Burlington (1997-98) and Winston-Salem Warthogs (1996). He also spent three years managing co-op squads in River City (1995) and Lethbridge (1993-94) following his first post as manager with the Gulf Coast League Orioles in 1992.

Wellman began his coaching career in 1988 as a hitting instructor for the Pulaski Braves. He worked in the Braves system until 1991 before returning in 2004.

Wellman spent parts of four seasons (1984-87) as a player in the Braves, Twins and Pirates organizations. He attended Sam Houston State University and graduated from Southwestern University at Georgetown (Texas) in 1985.

BRYAN EVERSGERD — PITCHING COACH

Eversgerd enters his second season with Springfield after spending the 2010 campaign with Palm Beach. This is his second stint with the Double-A Cardinals, having served as a hitting coach in 2008-09.

In 2011, Eversgerd was the pitching coach for the Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year, Shelby Miller, for the second half of his season as well as three Texas League All-Stars.

His pitching coach experience began at the Cardinals Midwest League Low-A affiliate in Peorida and Quad Cities from 2004-07 prior to joining Springfield's staff.

In 2004, he served at Single-A Peoria after being out of baseball for two years. His inaugural coaching season was in 2001 for the Cardinals as pitching coach at their High-A Potomac affiliate.

Eversgerd began his playing career with the Cardinals, signing as a non-drafted free agent on June 14, 1989. He pitched a scoreless inning of relief in his Major League debut for the Cardinals on April 26, 1994, and picked up his first big-league win in his only Major League start on May 20, 1994, at Florida. The left-hander also pitched for Montreal and Texas before returning to St. Louis from 1998 to 2000.

Eversgerd, 43, graduated from Carlyle (Ill.) High School in 1987, playing college baseball at Kaskaskia Community College and leading the team to the 1989 sectional championship. He resides in Hoffman, Ill., with his wife, Lisa, daughter, Kristen (14) and son, Jacob (12).

JOHNNY RODRIGUEZ — MANAGER

Rodriguez enters his first season as the manager at Palm Beach after spending the previous two seasons as the skipper at Quad Cities. He led the 2011 River Bandits to their first Midwest League title since 1991 and his 2010 squad produced the second-best record in the MWL (83-55).

Rodriguez begins his third season as a manager in the Cardinals organization after spending the 2009 season as the hitting coach at Johnson City.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez came from the Florida Marlins organization, where he was hitting coach at Jamestown in 2007-08. He had been with the Marlins since 2002, where he began as a manager at Jamestown.

Rodriguez served as a hitting coach in the Expos organization in 2000-01. Prior to joining the Expos, he spent 17 seasons as a coach in the New York Yankees system, at the University of Miami-Florida, Miami-Dade Community College and at the nationally prominant high school baseball program at Westminster Christian High School (FL).

Rodriguez, 55, also has scouting experience with Houston, Los Angeles Angels, New York Mets and Milwaukee organizations.

In October of 2002, he led an amateur team filled with draft-eligible prospects to the championship of the Perfect Game/Baseball America World Wood Bat tournament held in Jupiter, Fla.

His son, Sean, is a middle infielder in the Tampa Bay Rays system. Sean made his Major League debut on April 18, 2008 versus Seattle for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. Rodriguez resides in Miami, Fla.

JEFF ALBERT — HITTING COACH

Albert begins his fourth season with Palm Beach and is entering his fifth season overall in the organization. He joined the Cardinals as hitting coach at Batavia in 2008 & earned a promotion to Palm Beach in 2009.

In his first season with the organization, he helped guide Batavia to a championship as the MuckDogs were shutout just once on the season.

Albert played collegiate baseball at the Division III and Division II levels, with a couple of stops among independent professional teams. He began working on instruction and strength and conditioning with high school, college and professional players shortly thereafter and is owner and operator of swingtraining.net, which is a site dedicated to baseball training and analysis.

Following the 2008 season, Jeff traveled to Vienna, Austria, to speak at the European Baseball Coaches Association/Austrian Baseball Federation Clinic conducted by the International Sports Group.

Albert completed graduate work in Exercise Science at Louisiana Tech University where he was involved in various baseball training research studies as well as strength and conditioning with the La. Tech baseball and softball teams. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

DENNIS MARTINEZ — PITCHING COACH

Martinez returns to Palm Beach for his second season with the Cardinals High-A affiliate after spending the 2010 season with Springfield.

Martinez begins his sixth year in the Cardinals organization, serving in the same capacity for the Gulf Coast League entry in 2007. He totes a 23-year playing career as a pitcher from 1976-1998 for the Orioles, Expos, Indians, Mariners and Braves.

Nicknamed "El Presidente," Martinez totaled 245 career wins, which still ranks first among Latin American-born pitchers. He appeared in four All-Star games (1990-92, 1995), led the American League in wins in 1981 (while posting a 3.70 ERA in 692 career games.

On July 28, 1991 while pitching for Montreal at Dodger Stadium, Martinez tossed baseball's 13th perfect game, a 2-0 win.

Martinez, 57, also served as a special assistant in the Orioles organization.

An icon in his native country of Nicaragua, Martinez has met with President Daniel Oretga and is involved with developing baseball in the Latin American country. In 1998 Nicaragua renamed a 30,100 seat baseball stadium in Managua in his honor (Dennis Martinez National Stadium).

He has a son, Ricky, who was signed as a non-drafted free agent out of Nova Southeastern University in 2010 and played for the Cardinals short-season Single-A Batavia affiliate last season. Martinez currently resides in Miami.

LUIS AGUAYO — MANAGER

Aguayo enters his first season as the manager at Quad Cities after spending two seasons as manager of the Palm Beach Cardinals. This is his third season in the Cardinals organization, coming from the New York Mets organization as the minor league field coordinator (2007-09) and four months as the third base coach for the Major League club.

His 2010 Palm Beach squad produced eight Florida State League All-Stars.

Aguayo begins his eighth year as a manager, with past assignments coming in the Reds and Red Sox organization. He has a career managerial record of 312-341.

From 2004-06 Aguayo managed in the Reds organization, taking the 2004 Billings (A) short-season affiliate to the Pioneer League championship, coming up short by losing in the finals to Provo. The following two seasons, Aguayo was manager of the Reds' Gulf Coast League affiliate.

He spent 11 seasons in the Red Sox organization as a coach with the Triple-A affiliate in Pawtucket (1993-95), manager of the Gulf Coast League Red Sox (1997-98), manager of short-season Lowell (1999) and the last four years as the Minor League Infield Coordinator.

Aguayo, 53, resides in Veja Baja, Puerto Rico.

JOE KRUZEL — HITTING COACH

Joe Kruzel begins his fifth year as Quad Cities hitting coach and is in his seventh season as a coach at the minor league level.

In 2011, Quad Cities finished tops in the Midwest League in doubles, walks, on-base percentage and slugging percentage.

Kruzel came to the Cardinals after spending the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization. In 2007, he was manager at rookie-level Billings of the Pioneer League. In 2006, Kruzel was the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Reds.

Prior to his time with the Reds, the veteran college coach served as the assistant baseball coach at Miami (OH) University in 2005. He spent 15 seasons (1989-2003) at the University of Toledo, where he served as the assistant baseball coach (1989-92) and then head baseball coach (1993-2003). In addition to his coaching career, Kruzel played second base at Toledo from 1985-1988.

Kruzel, 46, resides in Hamilton, Ohio.

ARTHUR "ACE" ADAMS — PITCHING COACH

Adams returns for his fifth season as a pitching coach in the Cardinals organization making a return to the Midwest League affiliate in Quad Cities where he served as pitching coach from 2008-09.

From 2010-11, Adams was the pitching coach at short-season Batavia after coming over from the Red Sox organization where he spent four years as pitching coach.

He was pitching coach for the Double-A Portland affiliate who won the 2006 Eastern League championship. Adams advanced a level in each of his previous two seasons, coaching at High-A Wilmington and the year before in Low-A Augusta. He also was a traveling batting practice pitcher for the Red Sox in 1984-85.

Adams coached the Marlins Single-A Jupiter affiliate in 2002, when his pitching staff helped lead the team to an 81-57 record while compiling an overall 3.41 ERA. He also coached at Jupiter from 1999-2001 when they were affiliated with the Expos and at short-season Vermont in 1998.

Adams made the switch from college to the professional ranks in 1997, joining the Expos after 13 years as a college coach at the University of Michigan (1989-96), Brandeis (1986-89), Harvard (1985) and Dartmouth (1984).

While at Michigan, the Wellesley, Mass., native was the pitching coach for current St. Louis Cardinals manager Mike Matheny (1989-91) when he was a catcher for the Wolverines.

DANN BILARDELLO — MANAGER

Bilardello returns for his third season as the manager of Batavia. His 2010 squad won the Pinckney Division crown in his first season at the helm. Bilardello is in his sixth year with the Cardinals organization working as the minor league catching coordinator from 2007- 2009.

The former Major League catcher also had four years of minor league managing experience in the Boston Red Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers organizations.

Bilardello coached the Wilmington Blue Rocks in the Carolina League during the 2005 season and spent three years managing the Dodgers' Great Falls affiliate in the Pioneer League (2002) and the following two years with Columbus in the South Atlantic League. He led Great Falls to a Pioneer League Championship in 2002 with a record of 47-28 and 4-1 in the playoffs.

Bilardello played all or part of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with Cincinnati (1983-85), Montreal (1986), Pittsburgh (1989-90) and San Diego (1991-92). He signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers after being chosen in the first round of the secondary phase of the 1978 June amateur draft. He played a career-high 109 games during his rookie season with the Reds, posting career bests in home runs (8) and RBI (38). He hit his first home run off Tom Seaver.

Bilardello, 52, resides in Vero Beach, Fla., and has three children (two sons, Davis and Trey, and a daughter Kammie). Davis was a left-handed pitcher drafted by the Cardinals in the 43rd round of the 2007 draft and played as high as the Palm Beach High-A level. Trey is a professional golf caddie for Tag Ridings on the Nationwide Tour. Kammie was a two-sport athlete at Webber International University, playing tennis for four years and volleyball for three years.

ROGER LaFRANCOIS — HITTING COACH

Roger returns for his third season with the Muckdogs and he has over 20 years of coaching experience at the minor league level.

LaFrancois has coached or managed at all levels of the minor leagues with several different Major League organizations including the White Sox, Giants, Mets, Expos and Braves.

Prior to the joining the Cardinals, he was a coach with the Worcester Tornadoes of the Can American League (2008-2009).

His playing days involved him as a catcher in the Boston Red Sox organization, spending eight years with the Sox, and saw action in the Major Leagues during the 1982 season.

He is the founder and director of the Connecticut Dugout Club, and has also been a partner and director of the World Baseball Coaches Convention since 2003 and America's Game since 2001, in which coaches and athletes are instructed in the game of baseball.

LaFrancois resides in Old Saybrook, Conn.

DERNIER OROZCO — PITCHING COACH

Orozco begins his seventh season as a pitching coach in the Cardinals system and his first season with Batavia. He spent the 2011 season with the GCL Cardinals after spending the 2010 season as the pitching coach for the Venezuelan Summer League entry.

Orozco spent four years coaching in the Venezuelan Summer League from 2006- 2008 and again in 2011. He was pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2009.

The 30-year-old played six professional seasons in the Boston Red Sox organization as a right-handed pitcher. He went 4-2 with a 6.09 ERA, and totaled four walks and 21 strikeouts, in 14 games (29.2 IP) for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox in 2003, his final season. He posted a 1.88 ERA in 14 Venezuelan Summer League outings (three starts) one year prior.

In 2004, he was the first base coach for the Tigres De Aragua baseball club in the Venezuelan Winter League.

OLIVER MARMOL — MANAGER

Marmol begins his first season as a manager in the Cardinals organization at Johnson City just one year removed from his first coaching job, working as the hitting coach at the Gulf Coast League level with the Cardinals.

A former Cardinals minor league player, Marmol was drafted in the sixth round of the 2007 June First Year Player Draft out of the College of Charleston.

He spent four years playing in the Cardinals system finishing his career with the Palm Beach Cardinals in 2010. He batted .203 with five home runs and 68 RBI, while stealing 42 of 55 bases in his minor league career.

Marmol was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2004 out of Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., but decided to forego professional ball to attend college, where he batted .327 over three seasons with the Cougars.

RAMON ORTIZ — HITTING COACH

Ortiz enters his third season at Johnson City and fifth with the Cardinals organization after returning to in 2008. He spent the 2008 season as the hitting coach of the GCL Cards and in 2009 he served in the same capacity at Batavia.

In 2011, the Johnson City club won their second straight Appalachian League title and the offense led the Appy League in batting average, runs, hits, doubles, slugging percentage and on-base plus slugging percentage, a year after leading the league in almost every major offensive statistical category.

Ortiz was previously in the Dodgers organization from 2005-07, last serving as hitting coach for the GCL Dodgers in 2007. In 2006, he was with the Vero Beach Dodgers.

His past career saw stops in two of the Tampa Bay Rays affiliates, as a coach with the Rays' Hudson Valley affiliate in the New York-Penn League (1999-02), then two years at Bakersfield in the California League (2003-04).

The Venezuela native started his coaching career at the University of Central Venezuela (1983-85). He spent nine seasons (1987-95) as a coach in the Cardinals' system, followed by a three-season coaching stint (1996-98) in the Yankees' organization.

Ortiz, a former outfielder, played five seasons of professional baseball in the Expos and Twins systems.

DOUG WHITE — PITCHING COACH

Doug White is in his fifth season as a Cardinals minor league pitching coach and fourth at Johnson City. In 2008, he was pitching coach for the New York-Penn League champion Batavia MuckDogs.

White's 2011 staff led the Appalachian League in walks+hits/innings pitched (WHIP) and combined for the second-best ERA en route to back-to-back Appy League championships.

White has extensive experience as a pitching instructor and is the founder of "Passion for Pitching" clinics he runs out of Southern California.

He recently served as a pitching instructor for a Major League Baseball International sponsored clinic in Peru. He was the pitching coach for manager Jack Clark at Mid-Missouri of the Independent Frontier League in 2004. White also was the extended spring training and Gulf Coast League pitching coach for the Expos in 2003.

White is a 2002 graduate of Arizona State University in Broadcast Journalism and is a certified personal trainer. He made an appearance on the ABC reality TV show "Dating in the Dark" during the summer of 2009.

STEVE TURCO — MANAGER

Turco enters his fourth season as manager of the Gulf Coast League club.

In 2011, Turco led the rookie Redbirds to their best record in the team's five year history as well as their first winning season, posting a 31-24 mark, narrowly missing the playoffs.

His success instructing the upcoming Cardinals and steady improvement over his three years at the Gulf Coast League played a big part in winning the George Kissell Award in 2011 as voted on by his coaching and player development peers.

After spending nine seasons as a Cardinals scout, Turco returned to managing in 2009 and took over the managing reigns of the Gulf Coast League club, leading them to their best record since formation.

Previous managerial stops in the Cardinals chain included Johnson City for six seasons from 1994-99 and New Jersey in the New York-Penn League from 1992-93.

In 1996, he led Johnson City to an Appalachian League playoff berth with a then team record mark of 42-26, a win total which held up until 2011 when broken by current Double-A coach Mike Shildt. He is 351-366 in 11 seasons as a manager.

Turco has three years of non-managerial experience as a coach starting in Springfield in 1985 before moving to Savannah in 1986. After a four-year stint as a high school baseball coach, he returned to the professional level in 1991 to coach at Hamilton.

Turco was signed by the Cardinals in 1978 as an infielder and played in the farm system from 1979-1984.

Turco, 55, graduated from Cooper City High School in Florida in 1975. He earned a physical education degree from Florida State University in 1979. He resides in Clearwater, Fla.

TIM LEVEQUE — PITCHING COACH

Leveque begins his fifth season as pitching coach in the Cardinals organization and his first with the GCL Cardinals, working the last two seasons in Quad Cities.

Last season, Quad Cities won the 2011 Midwest League Championship, while the pitching staff registered the lowest BA against (.234) in the 16-team league and sent three pitchers to the MWL All-Star Game.

Leveque spent the 2008 season at Johnson City before earning a promotion to Batavia in 2009.

He was hired by the Cardinals in March of 2006 as a pitching specialist who coordinated and studied video of draft-eligible pitchers and will continue these tasks prior to the start of the each season.

Leveque's playing career began as a prep at Crespi High School in Encino, Calif., the same school that produced former Cardinals pitcher Jeff Suppan. He was drafted out of high school by the Detroit Tigers but did not sign, instead choosing to attend and play college baseball at the University of Michigan.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Leveque is single and currently resides in Northridge, Calif.

FRAY PENICHE — MANAGER

Peniche begins his second season as manager of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals after coaching the previous12 seasons in the Detroit Tigers organization, the most recent stint as manager of the DSL Tigers (2007-10).

He began his coaching career with the Oneonta Tigers (A) in 1999 then coached the 2000-2006 seasons with the DSL squad. He was promoted to manager of the DSL Tigers in 2007 and led the team to a 45-20 record and a second place finish in their division.

Peniche has spent the majority of his career in the Tigers organization starting as a player who was a non-drafted free agent of the Tigers, playing four seasons in their minor league system. He played three seasons (1995-97) with the Gulf Coast League Tigers (R) and one season (1998) in the New York-Penn League with the Jamestown Jammers.

JOBEL JIMENEZ — HITTING COACH

Jimenez begins his fifth season with the Cardinals organization after getting hired prior to the start of the 2007 Venezuelan Summer League season. He has worked all five seasons as a hitting coach with the Cardinals organization.

He first served as hitting coach for the VSL Cardinals from 2007-2009. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he worked for five years (2001-06) for the Red Sox as a scout and outfield instructor and hitting coach in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic.

Jimenez, 33, also served as a Venezuelan scout and outfield instructor for the Marlins organization from 1999-2000.

A minor league outfielder for two seasons (1993-94) in the Dodgers system, Jimenez moved to the scouting and coaching ranks and spent four seasons as an outfield instructor and VSL scout for the Dodgers from 1994-98.

BILL VILLANUEVA — PITCHING COACH

Villanueva is entering his fifth year as a pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals after joining the organization as pitching coach for the DSL entry in the summer of 2005.

After serving as an assistant pitching instructor at the Cardinals Jupiter, Fla. complex in 2008, he returned to coaching in 2009.

A former right-handed pitcher, Villanueva signed with the Marlins in 1995 and pitched six seasons in their minor league system.

His final stop was in 2000 at Single-A Kane County of the Midwest League, where he went 1-6 with a 3.76 ERA. Overall, Villanueva was 14-28 with a 3.95 ERA in 77 career minor league games (61 starts).

Villanueva also played for the Tigres de Licey from 1998-2001 in the Caribbean Baseball Series.

THE DARRYL KILE AWARD

At its annual dinner in January of 2003, the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the creation of the Darryl Kile Award. It is given annually to the Cardinal player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father, and a humble man. A veteran of 331 big league starts, Darryl was never on the disabled list at the Major League level and prided himself on never missing a start. The award was not given in 2002 in honor of Darryl.

CARDINALS RETIRED NUMBERS

In the 120-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, 13 individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout, or from the owners box or broadcast booth that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (14) have recognized more individuals with retired numbers. The honored Redbirds' jersey numbers appear in two areas; encircled in a series below the main scoreboard and above the Coca Cola Scoreboard Patio in right-center field and on the left-field wall at the new Busch Stadium.

Along with the 13 Cardinals retired numbers is that of Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson, whose uniform No. 42 was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his breaking the big-league color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1962.

The most recent honory was Hall of Fame manager Whitey Herzog, who returned to Busch Stadium for the ceremony in front of a sell out crowd honoring him and the 1985 Cardinals versus the Pittsburgh Pirates on July 31, 2010.

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith
HEIGHT: 5-10 WEIGHT: 180 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 12/26/54 at Mobile, Alabama.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1982-96.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. But after being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat, as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on Feb. 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success of the 1980s, and became one of the city's most popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly hit .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career high of six home runs and 54 RBI. He subsequently stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast - on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer - was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Gloves between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 4, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Upon his retirement, Smith was baseball's career leader in assists (8,375), chances accepted (12,624) and double plays (1,590) by a shortstop. He led the N.L. in fielding percentage eight times and had a career .978 mark, fifth in baseball annals at the end of his career.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games, and when he retired following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Mid-Summer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). Upon retirement, Smith ranked second among Cardinals in walks (876); third in games (1,990), at-bats (7,160) and stolen bases (433); sixth in runs (991) and hits (1,944); and ninth in doubles (338).

Smith was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2002, his first year on the ballot, receiving nearly 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Fans voted Smith shortstop on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on October 1, 2005 as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

In 2007, Smith was named the shortstop on the All-Time Rawlings Gold Glove Team, created to honor the Rawlings Gold Glove Award's 50th anniversary.

RED SCHOENDIENST

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

2

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right

BORN: 2/2/23 at Germantown, Illinois.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1945-56, 1961-76, 1979-95.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals' baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for some 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and still is involved with the organization as special assistant to the general manager.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club three years after signing out of nearby Germantown, Ill. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. Originally an outfielder, Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base the following year. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average - second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers at .344 - with 15 home runs and 79 RBI. On June 14, 1956, Schoendienst was involved in a surprising trade when he was sent to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. When his number was retired, Schoendienst ranked fourth in at-bats (6,841) and pinch hits (53); fifth in games (1,795), runs (1,025) and hits (1,980); sixth in doubles (352); and seventh in total bases (2,657) on the Cardinals' career lists. He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957, and seven times either led or tied for the N.L. lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 over the Red Sox and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, now the second-longest in franchise history behind Tony La Russa.

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland Athletics in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Schoendienst was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee.

6

FULL NAME: Stanley Frank Musial
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175 BATS: Left THROWS: Left
BORN: 11/21/20 at Donora, Pennsylvania.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1963.

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals' history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games (3,026), at-bats (10,972), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,951), walks (1,599) and total bases (6,134). His .331 average is fourth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) and Joe Medwick (.335). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks seventh with 35 pinch-hits.

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season. He immediately began a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples and earned the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of three World Championship teams (1942, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Mid-Summer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He has the fourth-most hits in baseball history - behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Musial was the first player in Cardinals' history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot Hall of Fame selection in 1969, being named on 93 percent of the ballots. Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the organization and served as general manager in 1967, when the Cardinals won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox. More than anything else, the personable Musial has been a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium on the newly-dedicated Musial Plaza with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight." Musial was chosen in 2010 by President Barack Obama to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom - the highest civilian honor for a United States citizen.

ENOS SLAUGHTER

OUTFIELDER

9

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter
HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATTED: Left THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/16 at Roxboro, North Carolina.
DIED: 8/12/02 at Durham, North Carolina.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1938-42, 1946-53.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the scored tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained there as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second base with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of five straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average - second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves at .330 - and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield cast of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history, and helped lead the Redbirds to the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1946. All he did is top the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs both years.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Tellinger. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On St. Louis' career lists at the time of his uniform retirement, he ranked second in RBI (1,148); third in triples (135) and walks (839); fourth in games (1,820), runs (1,071), hits (2,064) and total bases (3,138); fifth in at-bats (6,775) and doubles (366); and 11th in home runs (146). He batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the Hall of Fame in 1985.

KEN BOYER

THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

14

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: 5/20/31 at Liberty, Missouri. DIED: 9/7/82 at St. Louis, Missouri.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1955-65, 1971-72, 1978-80.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

Since 1900, only one player in Cardinals' history has hit for the cycle on two occasions. It's Ken Boyer, who accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory, and he contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game by the score of 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Mid-Summer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals' career lists upon his number retirement, Boyer ranked third in home runs (255); fifth in RBI (1,001) and total bases (3,011); sixth in at-bats (6,334); and seventh in games (1,667), runs (988) and hits (1,855) and ninth in walks (631). His seven grand slams are tied for the third most in club history behind Stan Musial's nine and Albert Pujols' 11.

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. East Division the following year. But in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got untracked, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age

DIZZY DEAN

17

FULL NAME: Jay Hanna (Dizzy) Dean
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 182 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 1/16/10 at Lucas, Arkansas. DIED: 7/17/74 at Reno, Nevada.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1930, 1932-37.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1974.

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the "Gas House Gang." The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals' post-1900 history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout to win Game 7 by the score of 11-0.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On St. Louis' career lists upon his number retirement, Dean ranked second in strikeouts (1,095); third in winning percentage (.641); sixth in wins (134), complete games (141) and shutouts (23); and ninth in innings pitched (1,738).

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a double-header against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1953.

LOU BROCK

20

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Left THROWS: Left
BORN: 6/18/39 at El Dorado, Arkansas.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1979.

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he holds the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering the mark of 104 by Maury Wills during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases to become the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium.

Brock paid immediate dividends in St. Louis, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) is a World Series record, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox.

On the Cardinals' career lists upon his number retirement, Brock ranked first in stolen bases (888 - Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427), hits (2,713), doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121); sixth in walks (681); and 10th in RBI (814). He was a six-time N.L. All-Star.

Brock has remained active in baseball since retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a baserunning consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and has served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (baserunning and outfield play) since 1995. He was a first-ballot Hall of Fame inductee in 1985.

Fans voted Brock the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on Oct. 1, 2005 as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

WHITEY HERZOG

MANAGER

24

FULL NAME: Dorrel Norman Elvert Herzog
BORN: 11/9/1931 at New Athens, Illinois.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1980-90
NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Whitey Herzog.

A native of New Athens, Ill., in the Metro East area of St. Louis, Herzog managed the Cardinals from 1980 to 1990. He ranks third in franchise history with 822 victories – trailing only Tony La Russa (1,408) and Red Schoendienst (1,041) – and his teams won three National League pennants and the 1982 World Series.

Hand-picked by club president August Busch Jr., Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980. Two months later, Herzog turned over his managerial duties to become general manager and have more direct involvement in player personnel. He assumed the dual role of field manager and general manager in October.

At the winter meetings that December, Herzog began to transform the Cardinals with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. He envisioned a team built on speed and defense in spacious Busch Stadium.

St. Louis posted the best record in the N.L. in 1981 but finished second in the Eastern Division in both halves of the strike-interrupted season and did not make the playoffs. Herzog relinquished his general manager duties on Opening Day of the 1982 season. The Cardinals went on to win the World Series with a thrilling seven-game victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the franchise's first championship in 15 years.

Two more pennants followed in 1985 and 1987. Meanwhile, fans flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Herzog, who valued his sterling relationship with Busch, resigned July 5, 1990, less than a year after Busch died, and did not manage again.

Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79). The Royals won three straight American League Western Division titles from 1976 to 1978 but fell to the New York Yankees in the League Championship Series all three times.

Herzog's lifetime managerial record was 1,281-1,125, a .532 winning percentage. His win total ranks 33rd on baseball's all-time list through 2011. He was named the 1982 Major League Manger of the Year and 1985 N.L. Manager of the Year. The charismatic "White Rat" also spent time as a big league coach, farm system director and scout and briefly served as general manager of the Angels in 1993 and 1994.

Primarily an outfielder during an eight-year big-league playing career, Herzog batted .257 with 25 home runs and 172 RBI for the Washington Senators (1956-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-60), Baltimore Orioles (1961-62) and Detroit Tigers (1963).

As a minor leaguer with the McAlester (Okla.) Rockets in 1949, Herzog was christened with the name "Whitey" by sportscaster Bill Speith for his light-colored hair.

Herzog was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2010 by the Veterans Committee. Two days before the enshrinement ceremonies July 25, Cardinals chairman Bill DeWitt Jr. announced that Herzog's number 24 would be retired by the organization. Herzog wore No. 3 in 1980, but infielder Ken Oberkfell gave up No. 24 after the season and Herzog took it.

BRUCE SUTTER
PITCHER

42

FULL NAME: Howard Bruce Sutter
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 1/8/53 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1981-84
NUMBER RETIRED: 2006.

Bruce Sutter was a pioneer whose journey landed him in Cooperstown.

The right-handed lights-out closer, who made famous the split-fingered fastball, was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2006. He became the fourth reliever enshrined into baseball's hallowed ground, following Hoyt Wilhelm (1985), Rollie Fingers (1992) and Dennis Eckersley (2004). Sutter was the first player never to start to a game to be selected.

Sutter pitched for the Cardinals from 1981 to 1984. Acquired from the Chicago Cubs on Dec. 9, 1980, in exchange for first baseman Leon Durham, third baseman Ken Reitz and minor-league third baseman Ty Waller, Sutter proved to be a key acquisition for general manager and manager Whitey Herzog in his transformation of the Cardinals from underachievers to World Champions.

During the strike-shortened 1981 season, Sutter saved 25 games – the most by a St. Louis pitcher since the save became an officially recognized statistic in 1969 – with chants of "Bruuuuuce!" bellowing throughout Busch Stadium every time he ran in from the bullpen. Sutter recorded 36 saves in 1982 and struck of Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers to wrap up Game 7 of the World Series.

Sutter had 45 saves in 1985 to tie the Major League record – set by Dan Quisenberry of the Kansas City Royals two years earlier – that since has been eclipsed. The Cardinals elected not to re-sign Sutter after that season, and he moved on to the Atlanta Braves. He subsequently was hampered by shoulder problems that led to his retirement following the 1988 campaign at the age of 35.

Struggling in the minor leagues with Class-A Quincy (Ill.) in 1973, Sutter learned the revolutionary split-fingered pitch from former Cardinals' right-hander Fred Martin, then a Chicago minor-league pitching coach. The pitch, an offshoot of the forkball that Sutter was suited to throw because of his long fingers, aptly was described as "a fastball that winds up like a dead fish" because of its wicked forward spin.

By 1976, Sutter was in the big leagues with the Cubs. He won the 1979 N.L. Cy Young Award after amassing 37 saves and a 2.22 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 101.3 innings pitched. He was only the third reliever to be so honored, following Mark Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees in 1977.

In 12 major-league seasons, Sutter totaled 300 saves to rank third on baseball's all-time list at the time of his retirement and 20th through 2006. He worked more than one inning for 188 of his rescues and surpassed 100 innings pitched in a season on five occasions, with one more year at 99. Sutter led the Senior Circuit in saves in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984. He was a six-time All-Star – appearing in four games and earning two wins (1978 and 1979) and two saves (1980 and 1981) while not allowing a run – and received the Rolaids Relief Man Award four times.

Sutter's four-year St. Louis save total of 127 established a franchise record and now ranks fourth.

BOB GIBSON

PITCHER

45

FULL NAME: Robert Gibson

HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 11/9/35 at Omaha, Nebraska.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1959-75.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1975.

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals' history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander is first in wins (251), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,885.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528) and tied for 10th in ERA (2.91).

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned Series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente broke Gibson's right leg July 15. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18 and then go 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts in the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox.

The postseason dominance was an indicator of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight complete-game starts in Series play. Gibson, the series MVP, totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, clouting 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Gloves. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981, his first year of eligibility. "Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also has done some broadcasting and has been a special instructor for the Cardinals since 1996.

Fans voted Gibson the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on Oct. 1, 2005, as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

ROGERS HORNSBY

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Rogers Hornsby
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/1896 at Winters, Texas. DIED: 1/5/1963 at Chicago, Illinois.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1915-26, 1933.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1997 (The Cardinals did not have numbers on their uniforms during Hornsby's tenure).

Since 1900, only two players have batted .400 on three occasions – Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby.

Only two playes have won multiple Triple Crowns – Ted Williams and Hornsby.

Hornsby, primarily a second baseman during his 23-year career, batted .401 in 1922, .403 in 1925 and .424 (a modern-day record) in 1924. He is the lone player in Cardinals' history to reach the coveted plateau. Hornsby led the National League in batting six consecutive seasons from 1920 to 1925, compiling a .397 average during that span. From 1921 to 1925, his average was .402, making him the only player ever to bat .400 over a five-year period.

Arguably the greatest right-handed batter of all time, Hornsby won the Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925. The first time, he batted .401 with 42 home runs (then an N.L. record) and 152 RBI while setting club records that still stand of 141 runs, 250 hits, 450 total bases, a .756 slugging percentage and a 33-game hitting streak. The second time, Hornsby had a .403 average with 39 homers and 139 RBI en route to being named the N.L. Most Valuable Player.

"The Rajah" spent the first 12 years of his career in St. Louis, leading the league in slugging percentage seven times; total bases six times; hits, doubles and RBI four times; runs three times; triples and home runs twice; and walks once. He was well known for refusing to go to movies because he thought the "strain" of watching the screen in darkness would hinder his eyesight.

On May 31, 1925, Hornsby took over as manager of the Cardinals, as well, replacing Branch Rickey. Hornsby continued in the dual role in 1926 and piloted the club to an 89-65 record and its first-ever World Championship, a seven-game victory over the New York Yankees.

An outspoken individual, Hornsby at times was critical of owner Sam Breadon. Eventually, Breadon had enough, and on Dec. 20, 1926, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for infielder Frankie Frisch (who had had a falling out with his manager, John McGraw) and pitcher Jimmy Ring.

Hornsby subsequently played for and managed the Boston Braves (1928) and Chicago Cubs (1929-32), winning a second MVP Award in 1929, before returning to the Cardinals in 1933. His second stint, however, lasted just three months before Hornsby was released to become manager of the cross-town Browns. He remained in the Browns' dugout until midway through the 1937 season. Hornsby returned to manage the Browns for the first two months of the 1952 campaign before moving on to the Cincinnati Reds for roughly a season and a half.

On the Cardinals' career lists upon his number retirement, Hornsby ranked first in batting average (.359); second in triples (143); third in runs (1,089), hits (2,110) and total bases (3,342); fourth in doubles (367) and RBI (1,072); seventh in home runs (193); seventh in walks (660); eighth in at-bats (5,881); and ninth in games (1,580). He played 997 games at second base, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Hornsby, whose lifetime batting average of .358 is the highest of any right-handed batter and second only to Cobb's .366 among all players, was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1942.

Retired Numbers

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR.

PRESIDENT

85

FULL NAME: August Anheuser Busch, Jr.
BORN: 3/28/1899 at St. Louis, Missouri. DIED: 9/29/89 at St. Louis, Missouri.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1953-89.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s, Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of "new" Busch Stadium. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the decade of the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 9, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the City of St. Louis' most popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996.

"That's a winner!"

JACK BUCK

BROADCASTER

FULL NAME: John Francis Buck
BORN: 8/21/1924 at Holyoke, Massachusetts.
DIED: 6/18/2002 at St. Louis, Missouri.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1954-2001.
NUMBER RETIRED: 2002.

He never swung a bat or thew a pitch. Yet, Jack Buck ranks as one of the most popular individuals ever associated with the Cardinals - perhaps the most popular.

Buck served as the "Voice of the Cardinals" on KMOX radio from 1954 to 2001. He was behind the microphone for some of the franchise's most-memorable moments: Bob Gibson's no-hitter in 1971, Lou Brock's 105th stolen base in 1974 and Mark McGwire's 61st home run in 1998. And his legendary call of Ozzie Smith's game-winning home run in Game 5 of the 1985 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, when Buck told St. Louis fans to "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy," still sends chills up Cardinals' fans spines every time it is replayed.

Through it all, Buck's signature phrase after every Cardinals' victory was "That's a winner," and those words are printed on Buck's retired number pennant.

From 1954 to 1969, Buck worked along side another legend, Harry Caray, to form what is widely regarded as the best baseball broadcast duo ever assembled. From 1972 to 2001, Buck teamed with former Cards' third baseman Mike Shannon, and the pair became as synonymous with St. Louis baseball as Stan Musial and Bob Gibson. Beginning in 1991, Buck had the privilege of calling games with his son Joe, who now is the lead baseball and football announcer for FOX Sports television.

Buck was inducted into the broadcaster's wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987. He was honored with a statue outside the Cardinals' executive offices at Busch Stadium in 1998.

There was more to Buck than Cardinals' baseball. He broadcast several World Series for CBS Radio. His most-famous non-St. Louis call came in Game 1 of the 1988 Fall Classic when an injured Kirk Gibson hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer for the Dodgers against the Oakland Athletics. "Unbelievable!" Buck exclaimed. "I don't believe what I just saw." Buck was CBS-TV's lead play-by-play announcer in 1990 and 1991, and he also worked for ABC and NBC.

Buck enjoyed a distinguished football broadcasting career, as well. He called one of the most famous games ever, the 1967 Ice Bowl between the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, for CBS, and he was the radio voice of Monday Night Football for CBS from 1978 to 1996, working with former NFL head coach Hank Stram. Buck, whose total of 17 Super Bowl broadcasts is the most of any announcer, received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

In addition, Buck announced basketball and hockey over the course of his career and also worked with Chris Schenkel on the Pro Bowler's Tour. Outside of sports, he served as the original host of "At Your Service" on KMOX, a program that essentially started the phenomenon of talk radio.

Buck's popularity extends well beyond his trademark gravely voice. Fans from coast to coast, but particularly those in St. Louis, knew him as a tremendously generous man who made time for everyone. He was named St. Louis' Citizen of the Year in 2000 for his contributions to the community.

When Buck passed away in June 2002, some 10,000 fans attended his public memorial service at Busch Stadium.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:

Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:

Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:

40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:

A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:

Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:

Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:

Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:

A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:

A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:

15-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

CREDENTIALS — Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies and must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made online at www.credentials.mlb.com. Requests should be made at least two working days prior to the game. Credentials are issued to working members of the press only; no spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations could result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available four hours prior to the start of the game at the media window, 424 South 7th St., located at the southwest corner of the stadium, near Gate 2. Photo identification is required. The press entrance is to the right of the media window.

ADMISSION — All media should enter the stadium through the press entrance at the southwest corner of the stadium, Media / VIP Entrance. The stadium will be open to media four hours before game time. If an earlier entrance to the park is necessary, please contact a member of the media relations staff.

PRESS BOX — The broadcast level of the pressbox is located on Level 3 (Loge Concourse) and the upper pressbox is located on Level 4 (Terrace Concourse) of the stadium. The media elevator is loacted in the lobby of the media entrance and is designated for employees and press only. Media should take the elevator to either the third level (broadcast) or fourth level (writers/radio) to reach the pressboxes. The press box is for working members of the media only and is a non-smoking area.

MEDIA DINING — The media dining facility is on the main service level of the stadium. It is open for meal service one-and one half hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately one hour after the game begins. The dining facility is located down the hallway off the media entrance lobby, on your left at the end of the hall.

CLUBHOUSES — Both the Cardinals and visitors clubhouses are located on the lower level of the stadium. The Cardinals clubhouse is on the first-base side while the visitors area can be found on the third-base side of the stadium. All working media with clubhouse credentials have access to the clubhouses 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until the conclusion of batting practice. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than 10 minutes following the game's conclusion. The Cardinals clubhouse is closed during batting practice. Check with the visiting media relations representative for rules that should be adhered to in the visitors clubhouse during the teams stay in St. Louis. At times, certain restrictions may be imposed for meetings, cooling-off periods, etc., for both clubhouses.

FIELD — No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges. All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch.

PRESS NOTES — Game notes and statistics are available in the press box approximately two hours prior to game time and on www.mlbpressbox.com. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES — Media guides are available by request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

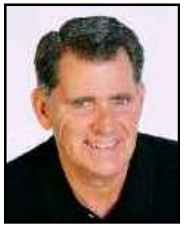
MLBPRESSBOX.COM — Gamenotes, team headshots, logos, press releases and MLB information can all be found at this site. Accredited media agencies can sign up for an account to have access at all times to regular season and postseason data.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

RADIO

KMOX Radio begins their second consecutive year, 54th overall, as the Voice of the Cardinals. The station's 50,000-watt signal at night can reach more than 40 states and parts of Canada. The station carried Cardinals games for 52 years through 2005 and returned as the team's flagship station in 2011. The club boasts a radio network of 117 stations covering nine states (Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, Tennessee). KMOX will broadcast all 162 of the 2012 games and 15 of the team's spring training games, including every Saturday and Sunday contest. Mike Shannon and partner John Rooney will continue to provide play-by-play commentary.

MIKE SHANNON



Mike Shannon will be broadcasting his 41st season on the Cardinals radio network. Throughout his years as a broadcastor for the Cardinals, Shannon has also made appearances for the Cardinals television broadcasts, including as a pre-game analyst for FSN Midwest. He also has worked with NBC's Baseball Game of the Week and called Cardinals football games on radio.

A St. Louis native, Shannon broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and became the Cardinals regular right fielder during the 1964 World Championship season. During the 1964 Series opener vs. New York, he hit a game-tying, two-run homer off Whitey Ford as St. Louis went on to defeat the Yankees in seven games. In 1967 Shannon was moved to third base to make room for newly acquired right fielder Roger Maris, as the Cardinals went on to win two straight National League pennants in 1967 and '68 as well as the 1967 World Series. His home run off Boston's Gary Bell was the key blow in Game 3 of the 1967 Series and his solo shot in Game 7 of the 1968 Series was the Cardinals only run off Mickey Lolich as the Tigers clinched the Series.

Mike's career was cut short by nephritis, a kidney disease, in 1970. He joined the Cardinals front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales and entered the broadcast booth in 1972, where he has remained. His many years with the organization give Shannon a unique insight in his commentary. He was honored at the end of the 2007 season for his 50 years of service with the club.

He has received numerous awards and honors throughout his career. A gifted athlete, he was a High School All-American football player, and in 1957 was named the Missouri prep Player of the Year in both basketball and football - the only player ever to receive both in the same year. He was named St. Louis Ambassador's 1993 Sportsman of the Year, St. Louis Variety Club 1996 Champion for Kids and received the 1985 Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting, St. Louis chapter. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his on air career and as a player on the field, and in November 2009 was selected to be a member of the Academy of Missouri Squires. In September 2010, Shannon was honored as St. Louis Press Club Media Person of the Year.

Mike, 72, resides in Illinois. He, and his late wife, Judy, have six children, 18 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

JOHN ROONEY

John Rooney is in his seventh year of broadcasting Cardinals games with partner Mike Shannon. Rooney, a Richmond, Mo. native, came to St. Louis from the Chicago White Sox where he spent 18 years (1988-2005) - one in TV and 17 seasons following in the radio booth. The Cardinals World Championship crown in 2006 gave John the privilege of working with the World Champion team in back-to-back seasons, following the White Sox win in 2005.

Rooney, 57, called his first major league game in 1983 with Shannon and Hall of Fame Broadcaster Jack Buck during a three-game series between the Cardinals and host Cincinnati Reds. He began his baseball broadcasting career at the class AAA level, spending the 1981-82 seasons with the Oklahoma 89ers and the 1983-84 campaigns with the Louisville Redbirds. John juggled two stints in the 1980's as a sports reporter for KMOX around his baseball broadcasting and serving as the voice of Missouri Tigers football and basketball on radio and TV for 20 seasons. His major league baseball radio assignments have included the Division Series (1995-97, 2003-04), League Championship Series (1987-97), CBS and ESPN radio All-Star Games (1990-1997, 2003-present), CBS radio World Series (1986-97), the FOX Saturday afternoon "Game of the Week" (1996-98) and select Sunday Night Baseball for ESPN Radio (2004 to present). John also has broadcast several college football bowls as well as the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, including 10 NCAA National Championship Games on CBS Radio Network, NCAA National Semi-Finals for 19 years and the Final Four (1984-2002).

Rooney was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2004. He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Colleen and Rachel.

TELEVISION

Fox Sports Midwest, a regional cable network, is the television home for Cardinals broadcasts again in 2012. The network will carry all non-nationally broadcast games and five spring training games. Play-by-play and color commentary will be provided by Dan McLaughlin, Al Hrabosky and Rick Horton.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky will be calling games on Cardinals telecasts for his 28th season. It marks his 16th straight-season in his role as color commentator on FSN Midwest. He began working as a commentator on telecasts for the team in 1985 and through the years has worked for Fox Sports Midwest, WB11, Prime and Sportstime cable.

Hrabosky made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals 1970's bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

Hrabosky, 62, was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2003, the Fullerton College Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Savanna High School Hall of Fame in 2011. Away from the booth he is active in many charities, including Little Patriots Embraced. He and his wife, June, reside in St. Louis.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin enters his 14th year as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals television broadcasts on Fox Sports Midwest. He also contributes pre-game content for the FS Midwest Pre-game Show and works with the Cardinals front office in producing video stories for the club's website and social media sites. In the past, Dan also filled in on Cardinals radio broadcasts.

During the baseball off-season, McLaughlin has worked as an annoucer for the St. Louis Blues telecasts on FSN Midwest and CW11, and has also been a pregame, intermission and postgame analyst for Blues radio broadcasts. He has also served as a television play-by-play voice for the University of Missouri men's basketball team, Missouri Valley Conference and the Mid-Continent Conference. He also has annouced college football, basketball and baseball games for ESPN. Before joining the Cardinals, McLaughlin did baseball play-by-play at the collegiate level.

A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood College, he began his professional broadcasting career in 1996 as a sports talk show host at KMOX Radio. McLaughlin, 38, is involved in several local charities as well as hosting "The Dan McLaughlin Golf Tournament to benefit the Special Education Foundation". Dan and his wife, Libby, make their home in St. Louis with their son, Luke, daughter, Avery, and twins Olivia and Barrett.

RICK HORTON

Rick Horton will continue his work as a broadcaster on Cardinals telecasts for a ninth season. Last year he joined the crew on FSN Midwest to provide play-by-play and color commentary on approximately 100 Cardinals games and he continues to provide postgame analysis. Horton provided color commentary on all KSDK broadcasts during the 2007-2010 seasons, as well as working as a baseball play-by-play & analyst and Cardinals Live post-game analyst for Fox Sports Midwest. He provided color commentary on KPLR telecasts from 2004-'06 and was co-anchor on the WB11 post-game show, Extra Innings, in 2003. Horton has filled in on the Cardinals Radio Network and Cardinals television broadcasts since 1997.

A former left-handed pitcher for the Cardinals, Rick spent seven years in the Major Leagues, playing for St. Louis, Los Angeles and the Chicago White Sox. He made his Major League debut with the Cardinals in 1984 and participated in the 1985 and 1987 World Series with the Redbirds and won the Series in 1988 while with the Dodgers. Horton was both a starter and relief pitcher for the club and had one of his best years in 1987 when he went 8-3 in 67 games, pitching 125 innings with 55 strikeouts. In 1991, he spent the season as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians minor league system.

After retiring from his Major League playing career, Horton remained in the St. Louis area where he has been active in the Greater St. Louis Area Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as the Director of the St. Louis FCA since 1993. Horton has assisted with Baseball Chapel with the Cardinals and he has also worked with the St. Louis Rams football team in leading chapel and Bible studies.

Horton, 52, and his wife, Ann, reside in St. Louis and have two children; Jen and Drew.

Cardinals Care...Caring for Kids in the Community

Cardinals Care is the team's community foundation dedicated to improving the lives of children. Since its inception in 1997, Cardinals Care has distributed more than $17 million to support St. Louis area organizations. They strive to reach under-served youth through ball field construction and maintenance, cash grant distribution, complimentary ticket programs, baseball and health clinics, school programs, charitable auctions and civic involvement. For more information or to make a donation, please go to www.cardinals.com/community or call 314-345-9418.

Redbird Rookies

Redbird Rookies is the Cardinals Care youth development program that supports kids both on and off the baseball field. This special league provides all the uniforms, gloves, bats, balls and other equipment, as well as extensive off-field guidance in the areas of health, education, mentoring and cultural arts. Currently Redbird Rookies has 20 leagues, serving over 4,000 kids in the St. Louis area and parts of rural Missouri and Illinois.

Rookies are invited to attend health fairs (above) where they learn to develop positive habits of eating right and staying active—and they get to hang out with Fredbird (left).

Each Rookie receives free vision, hearing and asthma screenings. In addition, they also get fitted for a complementary bike helmet.

Player Involvement

Throughout the season, Cardinals players and coaches spend quality time on the home field and out in the St. Louis community bringing smiles to the faces of fans in need.

Fundraising Events

The annual Winter Warm-Up and Jerseys Days are major fundraising initiatives for Cardinals Care which combine an opportunity for the fans to interact with players while donating to a great cause. Introduced in 2010, the Cardinals Care 6K and One Mile Fun Run promotes health and fitness. Thanks to the generous assistance of our players, coaches, staff, volunteers, sponsors and especially our loyal fans, these events continue to be a tremendous success.

Fans can meet past, present and future Cardinals favorites at the Winter Warm-Up held downtown every year during Martin Luther King, Jr. weekend.

Pitcher Chris Carpenter gives an autographed jersey to a fan who purchased a winning raffle ticket during a Cardinals game.

Neighborhood Ball Fields

In an effort to assist in the revitalization of communities throughout our region, Cardinals Care works with local neighborhoods to identify and fulfill their needs. Building ball fields and establishing baseball leagues gives youth the opportunity to learn to play ball and instills the importance of giving back.

To date, Cardinals Care has built and revived 19 ball fields throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area. Thousands of children now have a safe place to practice and play. In April 2011, the new ballfield in Wellston was dedicated as Yadier Molina field (right).

Fredbird's "Doin' it Right" School Program

"Say NO to Drugs! Stay in School! Participate in Sports and Stay Fit!"

These are the key messages conveyed to more than a quarter of a million grade school students in the St. Louis area. Former players Joe Cunningham, Al Hrabosky, Andy Benes and John Mabry and Mike Claiborne from the Cardinals broadcasting team join Fredbird to host this traveling, no-cost program that entertains students and reminds them of life's important goals.

Complimentary Tickets

The Cardinals donate over 45,000 tickets each year to numerous organizations including senior-citizen and community service groups, as well as local schools through their Staight-A, library and safety programs. Hundreds of area kids who participate in the Knothole, Special and Player Ticket Programs get the chance to experience their first Cardinals game.

Cardinals Crew Kids Club

This special fan club just for kids 15 and under includes game tickets, unique promotional items, an end-of-season members-only party at Busch Stadium and much more! Sign-up your favorite fan online at cardinals.com/kidsclub or at any home game.

Kids Crew members get exclusive access to meet players and even had the opportunity to ask former Skipper Tony La Russa the tough questions—like his favorite ice cream flavor!
